They overcame him by the blood of the Lamb and the Words of their Testimony - posted by ManOfG0d (), on: 2014/9/4 1

Revelation 12:11 KJV

And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives unto the death.

Good evening everyone.

Testimonies increase our Faith, and give someone hope that God brought you through it, He can bring me through it. In hopes of encouraging the Brethren I made this thread. If you are going to through a battle or trial, then please post and give Glory to God. There is power in Our Testimonies.

I would like to start by thanking God for His mercy, and for sending His only Begotten Son, Christ Jesus to die that we might have life and have it more abundantly. I thank God for raising His Son up on the 3rd day and for saving my soul. For filling me with the Holy Ghost and for setting me free from the sin that had me bound. I am thankful that I can honestly say that I am not who I was but I am a new creature in Christ.

Any takers? What has he brought you through?

Amen, the spoils of our battles against the enemy should be brought into God's house for the building up of the Body!

My testimony is that God has brought me through a broken marriage into a place of amazing blessing and love. My wife is still not saved but I can testify to God's goodness and a love that He has given me for my wife that I never had before. I used to pray, "Lord, change her!" Now I just pray, "Lord change me!" Our marriage has never been stronger.

In Christ,

Ron

Praise the Lord for a great thread topic, and a big Amen to both! God is good all the time, He is faithful all the time, even when I have struggled with doubts, fear, and questions He has remained constant in my life and for that I am eternally grateful.

I love to hear testimonies of how God heals, restores, and reconciles broken marriages. Since being saved in 1988, my greatest trial was when my marriage ended in divorce after 10 years of marriage and God brought my wife and I back together and we remarried back in 2006. Life has never been the same and our love for one another has been blessed and given by God.

Like you Ron, my wife is still not saved yet either but I am standing on the promises of God for her salvation and when God spoke His will to me about our restoration before she even divorced me, He also said she would one day be saved.

We will be celebrating our 30 year anniversary on September 15th which includes the 7 year interruption, and to God be the glory.

Be of good hope. If you serve God whole heartedly and faithfully God will save your wives.

1 Peter 3:1 KJV

Likewise, ye wives, be in subjection to your own husbands; that, if any obey not the word, they also may without the word be won by the conversation of the wives;

1 Corinthians 7:14 KJV

For the unbelieving husband is sanctified by the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified by the husband: else were your children unclean; but now are they holy.

They can be won through your conversation and lifestyle.

I wanted to follow up on this and add another Testimony. A sister in our church has been experiencing pain and severe disorientation. She has been hurting in her body that when she tried to bend over or even turn her head she would get nauseous and almost pass out.

Tonight, she came up front, and we prayed for her. We did just what the Bible said to do. We anointed the sick persons head with oil, called for the elders of the church and prayed the prayer of faith over her, believing that the prayer of faith would save the sick(that's James 5).

We prayed, she received. God miraculously healed her, she received a miracle! She is able to move her head, she can move freely without any pain or nausea. I want to give God praise.

The Bible says Jesus is the same, yesterday, and today, and forever. The miracles and healings He performed in the Bible He can perform for us today if we get in condition to ask and receive. Love you all, Glory!

If only i could BELIEVE these promises of God

"All things work together for good to them that love God and are called according to His purpose"

"Is anything too hard for the Lord?"

"All the hairs on my head are numbered"

"I'm more valuable to God than many sparrows"

"He is able to do exceedingly abundant more than i can ask or think according to the power that is at work within us"

"The weapons we fight with are not of the world. On the contrary they are divine power to demolish strongholds"

What a world of difference it could bring to my family life.

Saints,

You could add to the list of the promises that have encouraged you in personal life in turn to encourage one another.

Re: - posted by InTheLight (), on: 2014/9/8 11:43

I have been greatly encouraged by this promise;

I lift up my eyes to the hills. From where does my help come? My help comes from the LORD, who made heaven and earth. He will not let your foot be moved; he who keeps you will not slumber. Behold, he who keeps Israel will neither slumber nor sleep. The LORD is your keeper; the LORD is your shade on your right hand. The sun shall not strike you by day, nor the moon by night. The LORD will keep you from all evil; he will keep your life. The LORD will keep your going out and your coming in from this time forth and forevermore.

(Psalms 121:1-8)

In Christ,

Ron

I'd like to share another testimony. The past couple of days my debit card has been placed on lockdown by the bank. I found out today that the database of my bank had been hacked into and many people's personal information had been compromised. My card number was on the list, thankfully nothing had been stolen or taken out. I praise God for that.

The Whole Bible is good and I love all the Scripture but promise wise these verses are precious.

Matthew 6:33 KJV

But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you.

John 14:13-15 KJV

And whatsoever ye shall ask in my name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son. If ye shall ask any thing in my name, I will do it. If ye love me, keep my commandments.

1 Corinthians 10:13 KJV

There hath no temptation taken you but such as is common to man: but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it.

Love yall, be blessed.

Praise God, truly encouraged to hear this. We need such threads where we see the practical side of God's work and Christianity. Sadly many posters here are only interested in theology, many frequent posters avoid such thread, for them practical christianity is BORING.

God is taking me to the same path as you my brother. As I grow stronger in the Lord I started looking at my partners shortcomings and got discouraged. But God is teaching me that we both are her students, one student cannot look down on another student of the same teacher.

Re: - posted by ManOfG0d (), on: 2014/9/17 23:14

It's been a while since I posted a testimony, but God has been so good.

I want to thank God for a miracle he performed today. A couple days ago a man in the church had a 7 year old boy that was feeling sick. They took him to the local hospital where they administered him 3 shots. Whatever they gave him did not help, but on the contrary made him grow worse. His kidneys completely shut down, he could not go to the restrooms. Afterward, his organs shut down. The man called us and asked us all to pray. We prayed for him, by his stripes we were healed.

Today the pastor called the man and he had some amazing news. The boys organs were functioning and his kidneys were working. He had woken up and was 100% better. God completely healed him. The bible says He is the Lord, he changes not. I thank God for this miracle and that His Word never turns back void.

Re: - posted by ManOfG0d (), on: 2014/9/18 12:34

Greetings all. The Bible says in Psalm 105:1 KJV

O give thanks unto the Lord ; call upon his name: make known his deeds among the people.

I want to praise God and make his deeds known. God has truly delivered us. Without getting into details, I want to give glory to God for what He has done.

The devil has been after us. For the past 5 years we have had a neighbor that hasn't been so easy to get along with. He has trespassed on our land, harassed my family. Even shot past my brother one day. He has stolen things from us, amongst other things. All the while, we have prayed and sought God for this man soul and shined the light of Christ to him.

About a month ago we received a court order, the man was trying to sue us for a very large sum of money. Yesterday was the court date, after hearing both sides the judge promptly threw the case out as the man had no proof to back his claims.

I thank God for His mercy.

Isaiah 54:17 KJV

No weapon that is formed against thee shall prosper; and every tongue that shall rise against thee in judgment thou shalt condemn. This is the heritage of the servants of the Lord , and their righteousness is of me, saith the Lord .

Psalm 34:15, 17 KJV

The eyes of the Lord are upon the righteous, and his ears are open unto their cry. The righteous cry, and the Lord hear eth, and delivereth them out of all their troubles.

Re: - posted by ManOfG0d (), on: 2014/9/23 21:55

Praise the Lord. I want to give God some praise! Our church has broke out in revival and the Lord has been confirming the word with signs and wonders. Sunday night, we had a sister in our church receive the baptism of the Holy Ghost with the evidence of speaking in tongues.

There was a prayer request for a brother up north that has problems with his sugar. He has diabetes and starting having some trouble. He woke up one morning blind in one eye and having problems in his body. We prayed the prayer of faith and God miraculously HEALED HIM AND HE CAN SEE AGAIN!

Pray for us, God is doing great things amongst His people! Seek Ye the Lord while He may be found, call upon Him while He is near. Isaiah 55.

Love you all, God bless.

To Bro. Greg and all moderators, if it was wrong of me to revive this thread after no posts in it for a couple weeks, I do apologize and will make a new thread if needed. But, I have to praise God for what happened in church today.

Lately, we have had a lot of opposition come our way. People were getting sick, others were close to giving up. But the Bible says that God us faithful who will not suffer you to be tempted above that Ye are able. 1 Corinthians 10:13.

The church decided to go on a fast. We fasted for several days, and the men got together and held several all night prayer meetings at the church.

This morning during service we had a teenage boy get saved and give his heart to God along with a young adult female. The altars were filled with people weeping and crying out to God.

We had a baptism after church where 12 people were Baptized in the lake. During tonight's service the power of God de scended in a mighty way. A young woman that had backslid on God and had been invited to church many times came to night. She was convicted of her sins and she heeded the call and repented of her sins.

An elderly couple also rededicated their lives unto the Lord. I want to praise God and thank Him for what He is doing in our church.

Love you all, God bless.

Praise God, very encouraging testimony brother, thank you for sharing this.

This is what we need, an earnest seeking of God in prayer and fasting. "This kind goeth not out but by prayer and fasting", this speaks of a depth of seeking God, of vigilance and diligence, whole-heartedness. It's much more than just fasting and praying, it's coming to God in earnest, absolute surrender to his purpose and will. I'm not gonna say it can't be done. For His glory, for the love of God and others.

In Christ,

Ron

Hey guys, I've got another testimony that I would like to share. God has been so good. My grandfather has been having some serious heart problems. For over 30 years he was a drug lord and although he had been miraculously saved and delivered he still suffered from past decisions. He has fought and been delivered from cancer and other illnesses. But lately had had some heart problems. That caused him a lot of pain. We all began to pray and intercede for him.

Today he went to the heart specialist and after having several tests run on him he was told that his heart had begun to heal itself.

I praise God that His Word will never turn back void. He is still a healer. He changes not, the Lord is the same yesterday and today and forever.

Love you guys. God bless.

Re: - posted by ManOfGod (), on: 2014/11/3 7:26

Good morning all, hope everyone woke up with the intention and desire to draw nigh unto God today. The Lord has been so good, and has blessed our church in such a mighty way, I can't keep from telling about it.

The next time someone tells you that Pentecost was only for the church of bible times, and things don't happen like that in our day and hour, rebuke them in Jesus name. He said He is the same yesterday, today, and forever, He changes not. The miracles that we read about are obtainable to us today if we have faith and are in right condition to receive them.

Last night was our testimony/healing service. We have prayed many nights and hours and fasted many meals for last night. We started off with several people testifying how God had healed them from breast cancer, broken bones, tumors, etc.

Then the Holy Ghost spoke and said if there is anyone here needing healing to lay on the altar and let God do surgery on them.

The ladies gathered around the ladies, and the men around the men. The Bible said let all things be done decently and in order.

The presence of God was so powerful, when I laid on the altar all I could do was weep. The Holy Ghost fell I felt fire within and without, every pain in my back ceased, and is still gone today.

The presence of God manifested in such a way, the children were crying out to God.

Miracles that follow the plow :: They overcame him by the blood of the Lamb and the Words of their Testimony

Our brother who had cancer, received His healing!

To tell about it, or hear about it is one thing. To experience it for yourself is another.

I thank God that He is on the throne, and that He has blessed us in such a mighty way.

Love you all.
