This fall, my little niece Ivy started Christian Preschool. Recently she came home and announced that Jesus is God. On Christmas day, it was she that blessed the food. After the meal, her mom found her out in the yard waving her arms in the air. When questioned, little Ivy announced that she was worshiping God. Many hearts were touched.

Please pray for the salvation of Ivy's dad and mom, as well as her grandfather and grandmother.

God bless you all.

Dear Heartsong,

Have prayed and will pray.

Dear sister,

The LORD wanted me to post the "Ye Must Be Born Again Thread," but as I was doing it, along with another, it ran across my mind that doing so would cause this thread to fall off the front page and I had hoped that more would see it and pray, so I said "LORD if you want more people to see it, you will have to have someone respond."

Oh my delight in finding your response as I returned to the Home page. I just love the ways of our LORD! - and I thank you for your prayers for the effectual, fervent prayers of a righteous man availeth much.
