

Iraqi Girl Who Lost Everything at the Hands of ISIS Terrorists Asks God to Forgive Them - posted by sermonindex (), or

A young Iraqi Christian girl is among those who have lost everything at the hands of brutal Islamic State militants.

Now living with her family in a half-built mall in Northern Iraq, the child recently had a stunning reaction when a reporter asked how she would retaliate against the terrorists, if given a chance.

“I won’t do anything to them,” the child, named Myriam, told SAT-7, an Arabic-language TV network. “I will only ask God to forgive them.”

When a reporter for the Christian satellite network asked if she, too, could forgive the Islamic State, she responded, “Yes.”

from: <http://goo.gl/2Bw13L>