U.S. Government Drops Remaining Charges Against Evolutionary Foe Kent Hovind - posted by hulse () , on: 2015/5/18

He has been incarcerated since 2007 over 58 federal counts, 45 of which centered on alleged “structuring,” a term that refers to breaking up one’s banking transactions into smaller amounts in order to avoid reporting. The original intent of the law had reportedly been to catch drug dealers and money launderers.
