Voice of the Martyrs Sends Bibles Into North Korea - posted by sermonindex (), on: 2015/7/25 10:23

The Korean office for Voice of the Martyrs announced at a press conference earlier this week that the Christian missionary organization will be sending Bibles into the southern part of North Korea.

"In North Korea, even children are aware of the risks of possessing a Bible. Even socks, clothes or food are dangerous. People who pick up a Bible know their choice is very risky, they could probably end up being executed," said the Rev. Eric Foley, CEO of VOM Korea to NK News, explaining the dangers of owning a Bible in the Communist state.

VOM will be sending the Bibles, translated into a North Korean dialect, via balloons, a means by which the group has used in the past.

One difference this year is unlike past balloon distributions, VOM has a computer app to track where the Bibles will land in North Korea. ...

You can support and sponsor the purchase and delivery of Bibles to Christians in persecuted countries that are hostile to the gospel. It is but one of the missions VOM has ongoing worldwide:
