

News and Current Events :: Students Help Organize Blood Drive in Earthquake-Devastated NepalStudents Help Organize Blood Drive in Earthquake-Devastated Nepal - posted by gospelforasia (), on: 2015/7/28 13:24

Due to the earthquake, the blood supply in Nepal was severely taxed. The supply has remained low. Since many people have been too busy rebuilding their lives, few blood drives have been conducted. Seeing the need and recognising an opportunity to love their neighbours, students at a Bible college joined with the local Red Cross Society to organise a blood drive. Read the full story here <http://gospelforasia-reports.org/2015/07/students-help-organize-blood-drive-in-earthquake-devastated-nepal/>.

Re: Students Help Organize Blood Drive in Earthquake-Devastated Nepal - posted by davidkeel (), on: 2015/7/29 3:14

Thank you for this and all of the other posts.