As the United States and its leaders push for a democratic revolution in the country, Cuba has also seen an increase in another belief: Christianity.

Christian Today reported earlier this month that Cuba has seen a "Bible boom" over the last few months. In fact, almost 83,000 copies of the Bible entered the country through the International Missions board last month, according to Christian Today.

Similarly, The American Bible Society, which started the "Million Bible Mission" last year to spread Bibles across the world, gave about 60,000 Bibles to Cuba in 2014, according to Christian Today. ...
