Ciao Carmine,

I have been meaning to contact you for some time for two main reasons. One because your name is Carmine and two is that you are from Toronto which was leading me to the conclusion that you are Italian which you confirmed in a recent post.

I am Italian from both of my parents side. My mother Iolanda Mastrogiovanni is from Guardiaregia near Campobasso and my father Alessandro Fella is from Valleluce near Casino.

I have family in Toronto and visit there on occasion. I am very interested in knowing Italians who have been born again like both my parents and several of my relatives and friends.

Would you be willing to converse on a personal level via our private emails? Mine is in my profile and below. So if you are interested you can email me and then I will have your email.

Then maybe when I come to Toronto we can meet for a meal maybe like Vicentina Meats in Vaughn near my cousins house for some Porchetta?

Anyway Carmine it would be nice to hear your testimony and share with one another. I trust we would encourage one another in the faith. My family in Toronto are not born again evangelicals but are still in Catholicism. I do have one friend whose last name is Fusca who most of his family are born again and his son in law is in the ministry.

I am not sure what church they attend but maybe one day we could all get together and visit their church. Just some thoughts.

Se non sei comodo stare insieme o e-mail Vorrei capire, quindi non preoccupatevi, capisci?

Che Dio ti benedica,
Fratello Davide Fella

I will email you.

Quite a few of my immediate family have been saved and serve the Lord Jesus Christ. Most of us in the last 35 years.

God bless you too!
