Dear saints:

I would like to give you a free resource to reach out to Muslims. I believe that God wants to use this book powerfully to bring Muslims to Himself.

I have tested it and the reaction from Muslims (devout Muslims) is that the book is so interesting to them that they can't put it down, but challenging their beliefs in such a way that they have to make a decision since they can see that the Gospel of Jesus Christ challenges the claims of Islam.

You can direct Muslims to a free copy of the book on the website of the Arabic Bible Outreach Ministry. Just look up the following title: "When a Person Asks Dangerous Questions: The Miraculous Power of Truth". If you want your own pdf copy and intend to distribute it free of charge, please give me your e-mail address and I will send it to you. The reason I can do this is because it is self-published and made available to the public for free.

May God bless you richly as you seek to bring the Light of Christ to a dark world. There is hope even for the most hardened Muslims. LOVE HOPES ALL THINGS... (1 Corinthians 13:7)

Cool. Will check it out. It's not "the camel method" for reaching Muslims is it (using the Quran to prove the Bible in essence)?

Re: , on: 2016/2/7 5:18

Hmm. Kind of like using their own ammunition against them :-).

But I think on youtube there's a testimony of a Muslim who came to Christ through the witness of the Koran.

Yeah, but I don't like it. It's using the "authority" of the Quran to prove Christ. We don't need to use a demon inspired false text to prove Christ. We should be using the Word of God & knowing "the Gospel is the power of God to save".

Re: , on: 2016/2/7 10:57

Not saying anything can't happen in God's Sovereignty, but that doesn't mean it should dictate the practice & preaching of the church. The NT is full of examples & of commands of what to do: "Preach the Word..", "Preach the Gospel.." "Command man everywhere to repent & believe the Gospel.", etc., etc., etc.

Agreed bro. Certainly use the New Testament which is God's Word to bring Muslims to faith in Christ. Also I'm not above praying that they have a dream or a vision of Jesus that will direct them to the New Testament.

Dear Jeffmar1130:

Thanks for your interest. The book does not try to establish the truth based on the authority of the Qur'an, but it does engage with the Qur'an. Basically, the book goes from what is most familiar to Muslims to what is least familiar to them, eventually showing Muslims that the Bible has the answers that the Qur'an cannot provide, and that Jesus provides what Muhammad cannot provide.

Please let me know what you think about the book after you read it. If you intend to use it, I would love to know that too.

May God bless your efforts to reach out with the Gospel.

Jeffmar1130:

I'm curious to know if you read the book, and if so, what were your thoughts?
More importantly, have you shared it with a Muslim friend and has it given you an opportunity to talk about the gospel?

Thanks for the info about the book...I've just ordered 6 copies. We are in a heavily Asian area (Rochdale, England) and are trying to reach out to Muslims so hope it will go down well with those who receive it.

I couldn't find where to order a printed version from?

I'm sure being from Rochdale you will have seen these?
