Wow. I am praying about whether to share a prophetic word the Lord have pastor/brother TD Hale on February 1st here. He sent it to Rick Wiles on Feb 2 & Rick held back on it until this last Friday. I wrote it down word for word & have been praying about whether or not to share it here also. Of course it should be "tested" & time will tell if it was heard clearly from the Lord or not (it's pretty specific with no real room for "well maybe it meant something else"). I have a certain degree of respect for TD Hale as he IS ON RECORD in 2011 (I heard it in December 2011 Myself) before the last primaries even started sharing a dream in which the Lord showed that Mitt Romney would win the nomination but lose the election, & that Obama would win in a last second surprise & that the trouble for Mitt's campaign would start in Ohio. Not saying either was some "savior" either, just showing what would happen & how, & that's exactly how it all happened the next year.

The reason I think this recent prophetic word could be important is based on some previous discussion threads here on politics, division in the Body, discernment (or lack thereof) among believers, etc. I will pray some more on it & likely share in a separate post coming up.

Anyways, may God help this man to survive & thrive, may they catch the guy who did it, & may he also repent & come to faith in Christ & be set free from this murderous spirit.

I heard about Pastor Tim's amazing work with addicts. Many came to Christ because of his work up there. I recall that all who went through discipleship had to know the book of Proverbs! What a terrible turn of events for this brother but God spared him. Pray for everyone involved including Mr Cruz. Sister L

Here is a link to Pastor Tim's "rehabilitation house" called "Good Samaritan Rehabilitation.

Please continue to pray for Tim and also that the man who shot him be apprehended not only by the law but by Christ. I know that Mr. Remington has already forgiven him.

Also may the Lord use this incident to bring Ted Cruz to a place of being unashamed of the gospel in all his ways.

In Christ,
Leslie

Father we pray your mercy be upon this dear man of God. Also we pray that his shooter will turn himself in. We pray that he will come to Christ.

May your peace be upon this pastor and his family. God we thank you that his life has been spared. May you bring complete healing to his body and soul. May mire fruit come out of his ministry. But we pray this in Jesus name. Amen

Given how to dear man of God has helped so many find freedom in Christ. One can only conclude that what has happened to him was blowback from the enemy. Praise God that he has the victory in Jesus.

Thank you Mike for posting and Leslie for giving us a bit more background information about Pastor Tim. Blaine wrote: "One can only conclude that what has happened to him was blowback from the enemy"

Had a quick look at his website. The work he does must be very difficult.

The addictions are only a part of the problem. The drug world is the devils world, quite literally. Many are under demonic influence through "card reading" etc. Then there are the gangs and the money side. If someone wants to quit the dealers loose money.

The pastor needs our prayers !

We praise God for His hand of protection
Over this pastor and miracle of deliverance from death.

I have been saved now for over 40 years, and have had experiences that but for the angels of God protecting me, it would have meant sure death.

God does keep, preserve, and protect His saints that trust in Him, and claim the promises in the Word, and the delivering power of the blood of Jesus.

I just read that the shooter shot this pastor because he believed he was a reptilian alien disguised as a person. For real.
