With a media blitz, the Islamic State has set its sights on Egyptâ€™s Sinai Peninsula as the next shot at expanding its empire and establishing a base from which to attack neighboring Israel.

The terrorist groupâ€™s propaganda units have gone into high gear for recruitment this month to build a force in Sinai large enough to one day conquer Jerusalem â€™ the same way its fighters took over large parts of Syria and Iraq.

Last week, Marine Gen. Joseph Dunford, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, warned of the Islamic Stateâ€™s presence in Sinai, where the group may have placed as many as 1,000 terrorists. The generalâ€™s concern is a signal that the U.S. faces another war front against the Islamic State in addition to Iraq, Syria and Libya. ..
