Dear Saints

Me and my wife are struggling with our finances. She was let go from her job 3 weeks ago and was placed on unemployment which was a help since I only get paid twice a month. Just a week after her first payment we received a letter in the mail stating that until a phone conference to be held today, they are cutting off all payments to us due to "misconduct". The Lord knows that it was my wife who was the one suffering and came home many times crying because of how they treated her. Now they are claiming misconduct. I would ask you to pray that the Lord would not necessarily return the unemployment to us but to help her find employment more fitting than her last one. This is a desperate prayer as we are out of money and have no one to turn to.

GOD Bless

John

May the Lord intervene and guide in this time for you brother.

Father God,

You love John and his wife dearly and you know their every need. I pray that as they look to you as the birds of the air do, they remember that as they seek first your kingdom and your righteousness, all fear and worry will flee as they look in eager expectation to your provision. King David said 'I was young and now I am old, but I have never seen the righteous begging for bread.' Teach John and his wife your glorious ways as the let loose of the world's way of providing.

Thank you for hearing our prayers, Lord. Dry John's wife's tears and hold her close letting her know that you will never leave nor forsake them no matter how bad it looks!

'I am still confident of this:

I will see the goodness of the Lord

In the land of the living.

Wait for the LORD,

Be strong and take heart

And wait for the Lord.' -Ps. 27:13,14

May this be 'The Great Adventure' (as Steven Curtis Chapman sang. ) for you!

:-) keeping you in prayer,

Sis L

Amen in agreement. He will not see the righteous forsaken nor their seed begging for bread.

Lord Jesus do intervene in this situation with her dear brother John and his wife. Do meet their financial needs. I pray this in Jesus name Amen.

Brother I'm not sure about New Jersey. But I think most states have a procedure in which unemployment denials can be appealed.

You may want to pray and check into this. This is just a thought that came to my mind brother. We'll keep your situation in my prayers.

Agreeing with the saints in prayer for you, brother.

May you and your dear wife experience the goodness of the Lord at this time and in this season, Amen!

Amen that, brethren. Haven't we all been/are there? In the powerful name of Jesus, be prospered, John.

Father, as John and the rest of us petition your throne for resources to John and his family, we also pray that you will mobilize and speak to your people near them, people who are yours and who know them, to help them with their needs until this petition is met soon from your abundant riches in glory in Jesus Christ.

I just want to thank all of you for your prayers. As of this morning, our money finally went through and it included all the back pay they owed us. This is such a blessing to me and my family. We are truly rejoicing!

GOD Bless

John

PRAISING GOD!!!!

If anyone reads this thread, could you offer up a similar prayer for me and my family? My husband is in commercial real estate, and the closings are very few and far between in this economy. Clinging to the verse about the righteous never being forsaken and his descendants never begging bread.

So glad for you, John!!
