A pastor was tied up and killed by a group of Muslims in eastern Uganda reportedly for converting Muslims to Christianity and refusing to sell land for the building of a mosque.

According to Morning Star News (MSN), 38-year-old pastor Robert Bakulubanywa of Bubulanga Victory Church in the Kibuku District, was on his way home from a church gathering "when a band of Muslims killed him near his house".

A local resident told MSN: "They grabbed him, then tied him up and cut him with very sharp pang".

Bakulubanywa was killed on 24 July. His wife said that Muslims in the area had threatened the pastor on several occasions, especially after Friday prayers. ...

Lord, be with his family in a very tangible way with special Grace & nearness of your presence. Grant them Grace to bear up under this great trial & to get to a place of complete forgiveness & even praying for those who did this, like only your spirit ministering within such situations can bring about in truth.

And Lord, let his blood from the ground be used to bring more people to yourself, yes even among the Muslims who slew him.
