

Devotional Thoughts :: The Silent Depths of Your Wonder

The Silent Depths of Your Wonder, on: 2016/10/14 18:21

I am lost in the silent depths
Of Your secret wonders
Like gazing at the universe
And the sky above that thunders

Who could plummet the depths
Of a peace beyond all measure
Who could even begin to count
What's amassed in Your heavenly treasure

Who could soar the heavenly heights
Of the glory that's all yours
Who could begin to guess the strength
Of your power that simply endures

I can plummet all of Your depths
And soar to the heavenly heights
I can walk by the strength of Your arm
That takes me through the darkest nights

Your heavenly treasures supply all my need
They simply never come to an end
There is peace and joy and boundless hope
From my Lord, my Master and my friend.
