

Miracles that follow the plow :: Prayer Request*Prayer Request, on: 2016/12/24 14:06

Dear Saints

From time to time I have posted up various related spiritual struggles and questions up on here and always received caring replies.

This time I just have a simple prayer request.

I have come to the conclusion that I have very little idea of how good God actually is, and how desirable Christ is.

Please pray that God would reveal himself to me over this season, particularly as I have more time to study the scriptures.

I have recently been reading through the New Testament quite slowly, making a note of anything that strikes me as significant in relation to God's character.

Please pray that God would meet with me through this, and other means, that I may see the eternal preciousness and glory of His Son, which will in turn yield greater obedience and joy in my own life.

Thank you, and a blessed Christmas season to you all

Re: Prayer Request, on: 2016/12/24 14:17

Father I pray that you reveal more of your Son to Jon as he reads and meditates through the New Testament. For I ask this in Jesus name. Amen.

Bro Blaine

Re: - posted by dolfan (), on: 2016/12/24 15:25

Brother, that is a prayer that He will answer affirmatively all the time. Amen with you.