I noticed the NATO group continues to keep sending material and troops into the neighboring countries, amassing 4000 tanks and much other material. We should all be concerned as Trump isn't in office yet.

America's concern will be North Korea, NATO is a paper tiger and Russia knows they do not have the back bone without US support. The Arab nations relied on the present admin and what the progressives hoped would be the next admin to hold up NATO economically. With a changing of administrations there is a ton of different dynamics that will play out, the prosperity level in this country may end up being our downfall over the next 6 years or so, wealth has a way of putting people to sleep. Russia will eventually unify the Middle East and I can see The US as having lost all influence in the middle east, what influence we did have was because of the bribes/gifts, donations...however you want to frame it, that our officials accepted in secret, or at the very least on the quiet. Russia will be pretty much un-opposed, but trying to get those different muslim factions to walk together toward any goal is like trying to tame a bunch of wild donkeys...near impossible, until a clear goal or objective is in sight.

Zech 14:1 mentions the dividing of the spoil of Israel. Could it be in the dividing of the land? It's time to keep our eyes on Israel and get right with God. The son of perdition may be seen very soon. It will come like a flash. God is fixing to intervene on behalf of Israel after it's hit.

These NATO armies assembled are going to be used somehow.

Are we prepared? It's time to get on the ark. Stop trusting Trump and look to Christ. Satan is the master of deception. He has the world looking at Trump. Be aware.

Obama has nationalized election sites and may federalize the election. Things are happening!

Could it be in the dividing of the sheep from the goats? It's time to keep our eyes on Jesus and get right with God. The Son of God may be seen very soon. He will come like a thief. God is fixing to intervene on behalf of Jesus when it's time.

Soli Deo Gloria...Jesus is LORD!

The biggest deception imagined could be right in front of our eyes. Deep inside we trust in America's army. We tend to trust in our government. What if NATO decides to take on Russia? This would decimate the Christian world, the European Union is already flooded with Muslims and chaos would erupt the likes of which we have never seen. All that would be left would be Muslims. Imagine that scenario. and we have a muslim leader and many in his cabinet who just might attempt this in the next few days. Deception is everywhere in this world. This could cause the rise of the Ottoman empire, the mark of the beast and more.

We are at a crucial time and we really need to be serious about our life.

The post before this one can be saved and placed in the archives, along with all the other hype-oriented posts of 2016. That way we can look back next year, and maybe then we'll be less inclined to listen to the sensationalists who will be speculating out their speculations this year. They only tend to veer the eyes of the faithful off of Christ and onto their dreams, visions, and misguided interpretations of events, by their Scripture mangling.
