Are you being pressed on all sides and tested beyond your endurance? Is your strength nearly gone, leaving you on the brink of giving up? If this is the case, what is your way to victory? I can tell you how God continues to bring me out.

First, do not think you are experiencing some strange, unique battle. On the contrary! You are in good company. Remember Job, Jeremiah, Elijah, David, Paul? What you are going through has been common to believers throughout the centuries.

Beloved, think it not strange concerning the fiery trial which is to try you, as though some strange thing happened unto you: but rejoice, inasmuch as ye are partakers of Christ's sufferings; that, when his glory shall be revealed, ye may be glad also with exceeding joy (1 Peter 4:12-13).

Second, when you think you cannot go another step or endure another hour, with all that is in you cry out to God, Lord, help! Then consider the counsel of the psalmist:

I will call upon God; and the Lord shall save me. Evening, and morning, and at noon, will I pray, and cry aloud: and he shall hear my voice. He hath delivered my soul in peace from the battle that was against me (Psalm 55:16-18).

I will call upon the Lord, who is worthy to be praised: so shall I be saved from mine enemies. . . . In my distress I called upon the Lord, and cried unto my God: he heard my voice out of his temple, and my cry came before him, even into his ears (Psalm 18:3, 6).

O Lord my God, I cried unto thee, and thou hast healed me (Psalm 30:2).

And here is a key verse: For he shall deliver the needy when he crieth; the poor also, and him that hath no helper (Psalm 72:12).

Jesus sent the Holy Spirit to be your helper and He will not turn a deaf ear to your cry for help!
