Beware of Jews sign appears in UK - posted by docs (), on: 2017/3/15 9:20

A road sign which appears to warn "beware of Jews" has appeared just yards from a synagogue in north London.

The sign depicts the silhouette of an orthodox Jewish man wearing a traditional Fedora hat and was spotted on a lamppost in Stamford Hill on Tuesday.

A member of a Jewish neighbourhood watch group saw the sign and reported it to police.

Hackney Council is expected to remove it on Wednesday morning.

Anti-semitism is on the rise almost world-wide right now. Lord have mercy.
