Greetings to all my Family in the Name of The Lord Jesus Christ.

I feel blessed and am looking forward to interacting on the Forums, as well as listening to some great preaching.

Allow me to introduce myself. My name is Chris and I reside in SA, and was raised in an Agnostic home. I went on to become a buddhist and got involved in some rather unsavoury activities that were outside of the law.

I came to learn about God and Christ only when in my 20's, and read my first ever bible verse at that time.

Since which I have and still do strive to follow he Lord.

May you be blessed by Him, as you abide in Him!

Welcome Chris.

Welcome brother Chris, from a fellow South African, although nationality,race, blood etc are not what binds us now. We are bound by common faith in Jesus Christ the Lord.

He is, indeed, the pearl of great price for us, a treasure of such value that all else is dung in comparison.

Blessings,

Welcome, Chris!

I'm so glad you are here. Do you mind sharing a bit more of your testimony? I would love to hear about why you chose Buddhism and then how the Lord brought you out.
