Christian Pastor Says Many Indonesians Are Realizing Islam Is False, Finding Christ - posted by sermonindex (), on: 2017/5/27 9:43

Christianity is growing in Indonesia, according to a Baptist pastor from Jakarta. But at the same time, the influence of radical Islam is also being felt, with some districts in the country adapting highly restrictive bylaws.

The pastor, going by the name Kongkin, told The Christian Post in a phone interview on Thursday that his ministry in Jakarta helps persecuted Christians and makes sure their stories are heard across the country and abroad.

"When one part of the body suffers, every part suffers with it," Kongkin said.

He told CP that he is a former Muslim, and that it was the Gospel message itself that convinced him to start following Jesus Christ. ...

Anen and Amen!!! I heard this brother on an Open Doors webcast. What he shares is it encouraging. The gospel is going forth and many Muslims are coming to Christ. It has been said that more Muslims have come to Christ in the last 15 years than in all of fifteen centuries of Islam.

Let us continue to call out for the salvation of Muslims during this month of Ramadan when they are seeking their god. Let us cry out that they will have a vision of the one true God of love. Let us pray that they will have a vision of Jesus Himself. Let us pray that thousands of Muslims will come to saving faith and life in Jesus during this month of Ramadan.

Praise God!

I have heard similar reports from other countries. I have heard of one village in which everyone received a vision of Jesus Christ, including the imam. The entire village converted and the mosque was then turned into a church.

Praise the Lord!
