What's in the shop window? - posted by docs (), on: 2017/6/25 22:55

An astute Christian once said, "The church has so many items in her shop window that the cross is no longer noticed."

We are not to surround the cross with anything. We are not to put anything on the cross or around the cross that in any way obscures it.

What do you think is in the church's shop window that has come to obscure the cross?
