A Possible End Time Deception , on: 2017/7/18 18:58

Isaiah 66:4.

I also will choose their delusions, and will bring their fears upon them; because when I called, none did answer; when I spoke, they did not hear: but they did evil before my eyes, and chose that in which I delighted not.
(King James 200)

2 Thessalonians 2:11-12

For this reason God will send upon them a deluding influence so that they will believe what is false, in order that they all may be judged who did not believe the truth, but took pleasure in wickedness.
(NASB)

Matthew 24:23-24

"Then if anyone says to you, 'Behold, here is the Christ,' or 'There He is,' do not believe him. For false Christs and false prophets will arise and will show great signs and wonders, so as to mislead, if possible, even the elect.
(NASB)

2 Thessalonians 2:8-10

Then that lawless one will be revealed whom the Lord will slay with the breath of His mouth and bring to an end by the appearance of His coming; that is, the one whose coming is in accord with the activity of Satan, with all power and signs and false wonders, and with all the deception of wickedness for those who perish, because they did not receive the love of the truth so as to be saved.
(NASB)

2 Corinthians 11:14

No wonder, for even Satan disguises himself as an angel of light.
(NASB)

Those of us who believe in the Lord Jesus Christ and listen to His Spirit get a sense that Jesus is soon coming. We look at the signs of Matthew 24, Mark 13, and Luke 21. We see that the birth pangs are increasing with greater frequency. Satan's deception is increasing. It is invading even the evangelical church. So called believers in Christ will surround themselves with teachers who want to hear lies of Satan. But they hold the truth of Jesus Christ in derision. Because of this God will send them a delusion to believe what is false.

Lately I have seen news feeds reporting on alien extraterrestrial life. Even the mainstream media are reporting the possibility of alien civilizations that are out in space attempting to communicate with us. Since the beginning of the year these news reports have increased. Reports where radio telescopes are supposedly picking up strange signals from outer space.

Personally I do not subscribe to alien civilizations attempting to contact us. But the thought has occurred to me. Is it possible that the great mass of humanity is being programmed by the news media to expect visitors from outer space. Is it possible that the enemy is working through the news media outlets the spread of deception of visiting aliens.

If so then it would stand to reason that perhaps the antichrist could be an alien. Perhaps the antichrist could be an alien hybrid that has been created in the laboratory.

When the antichrist does appear he will not announce himself as the man of lawlessness. The antichrist will probably be masquerading as an angel of light. The antichrist will be the long awaited Messiah for the Jews. The antichrist will be the e mahdi that the Muslims are looking for. The antichrist will be a dalse christ that deceived Christians will be looking for. The antichrist will be the world leader that the nations are looking for. Is it possible that the antichrist will be revealed as an alien from a distant civilization. One who has been sent here to save us from ourselves. If so. Then Satan has certai nly set up the greatest deception of all.

I am not necessarily saying that the antichrist will be an alien. But given the interest in extraterrestrial life I cannot help b ut wonder. The news media does a great job at spreading lies. Look how the news media has gotten a great majority of Americans to believe that homosexuality is just simply another lifestyle.

I only put this out on the forum for us to be aware. We need to be aware of the schemes of the evil one so that we ourse lves will not be deceived. For Jesus did warn that the enemy would try to deceive if possible even the elect.

Ss the restraints are taken away we will see more demonic activity increase. But if we stay in intimate relation with Jesu s. The true Jesus of the New Testament. And if we listen to His Spirit and the Word by prayer. He will keep us safe from demonic deception.

Alleged radio signals have been heard for a good number of years. I think only one has passed muster as a strong possi bility.

If you want to go conspiracy theory I would say there is conditioning going on because they have already discovered life (albeit primitive) on Mars and they don't want the announcement to be a huge shock.

The church has to be ready when they make that announcement and right now it is woefully unready.

A is for alien

A is for antichrist

You might be onto something!

But...I'm on my way to the Chinese Buffet...I really like the taste of the sweet and sour chicken.

I'll check back with this thread later.

From Got Questions

Question: "Could an alien deception be part of the end times?"

Answer: We know that the events surrounding the end times, as described in the Bible, will include a powerful deception (Matthew 24:24). Recently, interest has been rising in the theory that this deception will include alien beings from another planet. Odd as it may seem, this theory is entirely plausible from a Christian perspective. Although the Bible gives us no word about whether or not aliens existâ€”there is no inclusion of them in the creation account in Genesis, and no mention of them elsewhereâ€”the Bible does tell us about visitors from another worldâ€”the spiritual world.

Since the beginning, instances of demons (fallen angels) visiting the earth have been witnessed and recorded. We know from Eveâ€™s encounter with Satan that demons are interested in monitoring (and altering) the progress of humanity. They want to be involved, with the goal of drawing humanity away from the worship of God and turning mankindâ€™s attention instead to them. Another notable instance of their interaction with us is found in Genesis 6:4 with the arrival of the "sons of God." The Genesis account states that these powerful beings had sexual intercourse with women and produced a super race of beings known as the Nephilim. This sounds like the stuff of science fiction, yet it is right there in the Bible. There are striking similarities between this account and the accounts of other ancient cultures. The writings of the ancient Sumerians, for example (who were the first to produce a written language) mention the presence of the "Anunna ki" who were deities that came from heaven to dwell on earth with men. It is also interesting to note that the Sumerian gods often came to them in the form of snakes.

These accounts, seen alongside the amazing things created by ancient man, make it possible to theorize that demons, in the form of beings from another world, came to earth, bringing spectacular wisdom and knowledge to men, and "intermarrying" with their daughters in an attempt to draw men away from God. We already see from Eveâ€™s experience with the serpent that demons will use the temptation of superior wisdom to ensnare man and that man is very susceptible to it.

Could the end times include a similar alien deception? The Bible doesnâ€™t directly address the issue, but it is certainly plausible, for a variety of reasons. First, the Bible tells us that the world will unite under the power of the Antichrist. In order to achieve an agreement between all the worldâ€™s religions, it would make sense for the "uniter" to come from an entirely new sourceâ€”an extraterrestrial source. It is hard to imagine one religion becoming head of all the others, unless new, unearthly knowledge were the source of the appeal and power of the new "religion." This would be in keeping with past deceptions and would be a very effective way to deceive a large number of people.

Second, this deception could provide an answer to the problem of earthâ€™s origins. The scientific theory that the evolution of life on earth was spontaneously generated still has no answer for lifeâ€™s beginnings. There is evidence for a "big bang," but that still doesnâ€™t explain what caused the big bang to occur. If alien beings arrived and gave us an extraterrestrial explanation for life on earth, the origins of the world religions, and even the origins of our planet, it would be very persuasive.

That said, we should not fear. The Lord has said that He will not leave us or forsake us, and that He will protect us (1 Kings 8:57; Matthew 10:31; Isaiah 41:10). Demons / angels are not omnipotent, nor are they omnipresent. Jesus said that in the end times His appearing would be like the lightningâ€”easily visible to all. He said to be wary of any being that says "I am the Christ" or any group that said "Heâ€™s over there" or "Heâ€™s in here" (Matthew 24:23-24). He said that vultures gather around a dead body, meaning that if you see a group of people gathering around someone claiming to be Christ, that person is death and a false prophet.

We should be wary of any person or being that produces signs and wonders without biblical fidelity or the presence of o bedience to the Lord Jesus, anyone who provides a way to unite the world religions or governments (Revelation 13:5-8), any being that promotes unnatural sexual relationships (Genesis 6:4; Jude 1:6-7), and of course, any person that denies that Jesus is God (2 John 1:7). Furthermore, anyone who presents a "substitute" Jesus, who represents Him as a "god but not the God" or who claims He was merely a good teacher, simply a human, or even a super-human or an alien creature, is a deceiver.

Lastly, if demons manifesting as aliens are part of the end times, we should remember that they, too, are created beings, subject to a sovereign God, and ultimately answerable to Him. Whether in alien form or not, the descriptions of demons in Revelation are frightening (Revelation 9:1-12), but we should not fear those who can kill the body, but only Him who can kill the body and the soul in hell (Matthew 10:28). No matter what happens to us on the earth, we should trust that the Lord is the Savior, Redeemer, and Protector of the souls of those who put their trust in Him (Psalm 9:10; 22:5).

"And Adam called his wife's name Eve; because she was the mother of all living." Genesis 3:20, KJV.

A little verse with amazing truth and revelation.

"ALL" is a BIG word.

As God looked at "ALL" of His creation... He inspired Adam to establish the truth that Eve IS: "the mother of ALL living".

Did Eve travel to other "world's"??

Don't think so.

(The devil is THE great Deceiver/Hoaxster!!)

Re: - posted by TMK (), on: 2017/7/18 21:31

Dspks-

There may not be any alien life forms out there but your post is a non sequitur.

Eve is not the mother of rhinoceroses.

Re: - posted by docs (), on: 2017/7/18 22:05

The mystery of iniquity incarnate.

It's notable that maybe as much as half the church doesn't even believe in a personal AC. Does that view qualify as deception?

The AC won't be the product of some laboratory or whatever but will be the mystery of iniquity incarnate as Christ was the mystery of godliness incarnate. The AC will oppose Christ and be against Christ with the intent of replacing Christ. Perhaps at some point inhabited by Satan himself, the special objects of his wrath will be the Jewish people and the church of God who hold to the commandments of Jesus. Paul gave a pretty remarkable piece of prophetic insight when he wrote that the Day of the Lord could not happen before the man of sin is revealed. (II Thess 2:1-3).

TMK:

I like that word... "sequitur".

I like "rhinoceroses", too!

(Oh, by the way, TMK...In my first post on this thread... I was just quoting Scripture...)

Re: , on: 2017/7/19 0:46

Best thread ever. I've prayed to the Lord about the end times for 30 years, and, while I don't know if there are aliens, I appreciate the thought and biblical references put in to your post, Bro Blaine. Outside the box.

//Oh, by the way, TMK...In my first post on this thread... I was just quoting Scripture.//

True, but you were inferring since Eve was "mother of all the living" then there could be no alien life. Obviously that verse is talking about human life, not non-human life.

Re: - posted by TMK (), on: 2017/7/19 9:52

//"they have already discovered life (albeit primitive) on Mars"

"To date no proof has been found of past or present life on Mars." From wikipedia//

In my post you quoted I said that is a possible conspiracy theory, not that I was subscribing to that theory. In the movie "2001: A Space Odyssey" it was discussed that "proper conditioning" of the masses would be needed before proof of alien life was disclosed.

All that being said, I am sure there is at least a bacteria or lichen out there somewhere. If so, God put it there.

Re: - posted by dspks, on: 2017/7/19 22:04

If there is a link where it says "bacteria" has been found on Mars (or anywhere else in the universe) I'd like to read it. (Unless it's on Alex Jones' website.) :)

A statement was made by someone on this thread, who said, "I am sure there is at least a bacteria or lichen out there somewhere."

Is this person REALLY "sure"... or REALLY "hopeful"?

Re: - posted by dspks, on: 2017/7/19 23:25

The future of the universe is revealed in Scripture:

"But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; in the which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burned up." 2Peter 3:10

I sure hope the Lord gives a "heads-up" to all those innocent aliens out there!!

"Red Alert!!!!!"

"Shields Up!!!!!"

Re: - posted by dspks, on: 2017/7/19 23:48

Now I may be wrong... some aliens could escape this judgment from God... (if it were only a "local universe" judgment)!

I said it- in the post just prior to yours.

If you don't think there's a speck of life on any of the billions of planets or moons out there, that is certainly your prerogative.

My main point is that the church better be ready with answers if/when that discovery is announced.
