Fire On The Altar had a short clip called "To Chew On" that featured a man telling the story about Mr. Genor, and all of the people whom he impacted while witnessing on George Street in Sydney, Australia. The music came from the movie The Last of the Mohicans.

Does anyone know the larger sermon or message that this came from? I would love to listen to the whole thing.

Thanks!

That is the clip that I am talking about, but I can't seem to find the larger context in which it was delivered.

Unfortunately the name got mis-spelled. It should be 'Jenner'

See here : https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Frank_Jenner

There is a good documentary on him with interviews with his daughter and others he influenced. <https://faithlifetv.com/items/340770>
