The FISA Memo: Released with no Retractions:

The infamous "Fisa memo" was released on Friday with no retractions. Names were left in the document over the objections of the DOJ, FBI, Democrats, and anyone else who felt the need to complain. The memo was declassified by the President prior to release. But when you read the memo, numerous pieces of the political puzzle have now become clearer.

The FISA requests were based upon the document of a known Trump hater who lied. The investigation into President Trump was conducted by extremely biased people who used improper evidence and requests to subvert a Presidential election. The author of the dossier, Christopher Steele went so far as to meet with several media outlets - to leak information, and lied about that to the FBI.

There are plenty of names in the memo, names familiar to all of us from recent revelations.

Remember when Trump originally said that there was a clandestine surveillance of himself and his team? HE WAS RIGHT.

The memo described inordinate bias against then-candidate Trump by the players involved, and serious attempts to take down the man we elected. It's a disgrace to not just the FBI and DOJ, but all Washington politicians. The DNC and Hillary's campaign paid for the Trump Dossier, with hopes that it would derail his campaign. It failed miserably, which is why all the angst on the part of Democrats. They LOST in spite of themselves.

"Steele admitted to Ohr his feelings against then Candidate Trump, in September of 2016, when Steele told Ohr, that he Steele 'was desperate that Donald Trump not get elected and was passionate about him not being president.'" (From the memo)

The memo also named the names of several officials who signed FISA requests without having vetted the dossier fully. The FISA requests are supposed to be renewed every 90 days, with each separate findings requiring probable cause. James Comey, Andrew McCabe, Sally Yates, Dana Boente, and Rod Rosenstein each signed "one or more" FISA requests on behalf of the DOJ. And the dossier still had not been properly vetted. Or as one FBI official put it, "the vetting was still in its infancy." And Comey himself called it "salacious and unverified" when he spoke to Trump in early 2017.

The memo also states that Peter Strzok, and Lisa Page met with Andrew McCabe to discuss the "insurance policy" against Trump. Where's our insurance policy against them?

If you put all the pieces together here's what you get:

The DNC rigs the Democratic Primary Election against Bernie Sanders so Hillary can win the nomination. The Obama administration starts to request surveillance on Trump, his family, his transition team, and anyone associated with him, beginning with Carter Page.

Donna Brazil gives Hillary the questions to a debate. The DNC pays Christopher Steele to come up with a smear dossier about Trump. The mainstream media releases a taped conversation about Trump talking about grabbing women's parts.

After all this, Trump still wins the General Election.

Obama orders an investigation into Russia meddling in our elections. Obama changes Executive Order 12333 to allow more agencies to have access to surveillance data. The Democratic Party comes up with a scandal that Trump Colluded with Russia to win the election with no evidence or proof. This wild claim is backed up by the mainstream media. Obama holdovers start unmasking Trump's transition team and staff members over so-called "collusion" that didn't exist, then released the classified information to the mainstream media. Why? Because the DNC and the Obama administration colluded with the intelligence community to thwart Trump's campaign efforts to get him elected president.

All this Russia collusion is an attempt to cover up the fact that the Obama administration's FBI and DOJ, the intelligence community, the DNC, Hillary's Campaign, along with the mainstream media used our nation's surveillance as a political tool.

ool to try to get Hillary elected President. "This makes Watergate look like a kindergarten play. Let that sink in . . ." Jeff Cook- social media post
The truth is now out there. The fact that Donald J. Trump was able to win the Presidency in spite of the efforts to derail him is spectacular.

Yeah and from following this subject, there is apparently a mountain more coming out- they (the team determined to expose this) are rolling this out slowly to establish a foundation for the public to get a handle on and begin to digest just how widespread and ugly this really is. Unfortunately there is a group who is equally determined to keep it secret and if not possible to, then shift the narrative by a host (anyway possible) of measures.

It's interesting that there is SO MUCH going on behind the scenes on both sides, a proverbial civil war really, for the future of America. Kinda like waking up in a Tom Clancy novel, but it's real and the stakes are higher than they've been since it's inception.

Had noticed POTUS SOTU address referenced our faith in and need of God like I hadn't heard since my childhood, which was (for me) refreshing.

Also saw a video speech the other day, from DJT's campaign before election, and it seems that he was very sober minded regarding what was happening (corruption) and the high price to expose it. Was very impressed considering where we are today and the foresight that was had and the courage to confront all this publicly.

Def gonna get interesting going forward and to think, she lost a rigged election??? Ha!

All who come against/after him(President Trump) will fall because of him

In both houses we will start to see the judgements give expression in thier home states in increasing measure, according to the states reps and the cleanness of thier hands. Exciting times ahead of us. Repent
