Feb 24th National Prayer Conference Call (praying for upcoming SermonIndex Conference) - posted by sermonindex ()

Dear Saints,

We have been prayerfully working towards a conference for this October 2018 in California. the Lord has opened doors and confirmed speakers. We are waiting for the final confirmations before we publicly put out the conference in flyer for m etc.

But there is a national prayer conference call this Feb 20th that will be praying for the upcoming event. Please join in to hear some of the speakers and to pray for revival and the SermonIndex Simulcast conference.

Saints,

Please join us on this call. We have other special guests:

Dan Biser who is helping moderate the conference.

Also one of the Sisters of Mary (Basilea Schlink movement) will be joining with us also.

You will have my prayers that God who is unlimited will show in a special way and reconfirm not only to your own heart but to all those present that He is still in control. I believe many doors of utterance will become open to you during this next chapter of your life and walk with Jesus Christ. God bless bro dmiller

Humbled by your prayer and kind words.

Do write down the date, and call number dear saints, let us join in prayer for this time and ask God to do the impossible.

Each speaker will be sharing a short word from the Lord that God lays on their heart.

Also Dan Biser will be joining with us! He will also be helping serve as a moderator at the conference.
