I desire the prayer of SI. We recently found out that my wife is with child, she's having a bit of a rough time (she's very happy to be having #2) with the changes this time. I desire your prayers. God bless ya' all.

p.s. we just want a healthy baby, but if you feel so inclined, i sure would like to have a boy ;)

Bro,

Will keep your wife's health in prayer, but about the other request, may your previous prayers be answered.

Rub up against me... I have 4 boys, no girls. My wife feels outnumbered. And she gave up trying to get us to leave the seat down a loooong time ago.

Nice thing about boys is they pee in the yard. Ya dont have to run 'em inside to the potty when their 2 yrs old for a #1.
