Saints,

We are just under 2 months away from the SermonIndex Simulcast event. This is an in-person event in Lancaster, California with 12 speakers.

Also there will be locations across the USA who are showing the video broadcast feed where you can gather and watch with other believers. If you are interested to be a host location at your church or house church get in contact with us here : sermonindex@gmail.com

On Facebook you can share the event page here: www.facebook.com/events/1831202130280758 just click "invite friends" and invite 50-100 of your friends! If everyone did this we would see alot more interest.

Bringing this back up to the front page, do pray for this event that the Lord will be present and do glorious things in our midst. Our need is Him.

I'm sorry, I'm tech challenged, but thought someone else may have the same question. Will the conference be live-streamed where individuals can watch in their homes, or is it only available to registered simulcast locations?

Thank you, I hoped so. Can't come from Chicago, but I attended at Indianapolis and Atlanta....such a blessing! Praying the Holy Spirit will surround every aspect of the conference. Thank you for all you do!
