My Brother Nick Is In ICU, Please Pray - posted by drifter (), on: 2019/5/14 20:49

My brother has a heart infection and is on antibiotics. Doctors are saying there is a chance he might die.

I would really appreciate if you all could pray for him. He is not saved.

Heavenly Father, we come to You in the precious name of Jesus, thanking You for Your Love, mercy, and grace. We ask You to forgive us of all our sins, as we forgive those who have sinned against us. Father, please heal our Brother Nigel's Brother, make him well. May You be glorified through this as a powerful witness to Nigel's Brother and those around, that they would believe on You as Lord and Savior...open their eyes and understanding. Please give Nigel the boldness to make known the mystery of the gospel. Thank you so much Father. We love You so much! May Your perfect will be done. Please comfort our Brother, and increase his faith during this time. In Jesus precious, Holy name, Amen.

He sent out his word and healed them, snatching them from the door of death. (Psalm 107:20)

Father,

As we pray in agreement for Nick, we thank you for sending forth the Word of life bringing healing to Nick's heart. We believe Lord that Nick will live and not die, and that he will declare the mighty works of God in Jesus name. (Psalm 118:7)

Is there any word on your brother today?

Re: - posted by drifter (), on: 2019/5/15 21:44

He will be transported to Victoria within the next 48 hours to have surgery done on his lung. When I was at the hospital today he could talk to me but was pretty doped up. He is on a second round of antibiotics.

PTL. Still praying for his salvation...

Nick is recovering steadily and will in all likelihood be out of the hospital in two weeks or so. No surgery was necessary. Thank you all so much for your concern and for praying for my brother.

One thing I am concerned about is, Nick is still not saved. I don't want him to be gospel-hardened, because he has heard Christ's message many times from myself and others, and I have seen the Holy Spirit touch him powerfully on several occasions.
