Attention Metal Heads Part II, on: 2005/7/14 13:20

The 80's Christian metal band Sacred Warrior has two of their albums up for free downloading at: <http://www.sacredwarrior.net/music.htm>

Both albums are from 1988 & 1989... the lyrics are stone cold in your face Bible. Great stuff.

Raise your hand if you're surprised I'm into this kind of music... bet y'all thought I was into George Beverly Shea...

What songs would you recommend? Don't want to download both full albums with my super-slow connection speed. Any favorites?

From Rebellion:

05 He Died

07 Master Of Lies

11 The Heavens Are Calling

From Master's Command:

02 Beyond The Mountain

06 Paradise this is my personal fave

08 Many Will Come

11 Holy Holy Holy

In reality I like 'em all... but these are my favorites. This band was probably one of the more biblically based metal bands of that genre. I especially appreciate that they are offering their music for free. Especially since there has been a nostalgic re-newed interest in 80's metal lately... they could probably re-issue their stuff and make more money... but they're not. Very cool.

I was beginning to think I was the only metal head on this forum... and then I realized something... everyone here probably went and downloaded the music, and is right now rockin' out to it... but too afraid to admit on here that they like it. Such self pride... y'all need to repent!!

:-P

What! You mean you did not don your leather jacket and doc martins and have a good old head bang?
8-)

I got rid of most things from my heavy metal gothic phase, especially the photo's as they are quite embarrassing!

Now I am into harmless country and bluegrass - it is the way forward!

Hey... I love bluegrass... Ralph Stanley rules!
