I'm in a position where I attend a church with women and male pastors, but they hardly preach sermons and the gospel, just anecdotal stories. I live near ATL, but I am so hungry for the word and Godly fellowship that is based on truth. I'm seeking the Lord what to do and if another church is the Lords will. Its messy, please pray. Doug

When I was in Alanta I attended ACFC. Great fellowship, biblical elders and every service definetly was full of the words of God. Check it out brother.
