

News and Current Events :: Churches may reopen, but many services won't have singing?

Churches may reopen, but many services won't have singing? - posted by sermonindex (), on: 2020/5/19 8:25

â€œSinging together in congregations is a practice that we dearly love and are eager to promote, but loving our neighbor is job one here and so the time for fasting from this wonderful practice may be longer than any of us would like.â€

His unprecedented words of warning come as religious leaders have received jarring predictions from scientists well-versed in virology as well as vocal practices. Webinars, videos and texts are circulating across the globe as scientists reveal their studies, and clergy must consider what to do with the results of those reports. Some church leaders aren't yet sure what to do when they reopen, others are designing multiphase plans, and still others are moving ahead with their traditional practices of praise. ...

from: <https://www.sfchronicle.com/news/article/Churches-may-reopen-but-many-services-won-t-15276498.php>

Re: Churches may reopen, but many services won't have singing? - posted by sermonindex (), on: 2020/5/19 8:26

brothers and sisters,

We just raise our voices now in praise to God and sing Hymns to our King.

We must meet and gather now with believers.

Hebrews 10:25 King James Version (KJV)

25 Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another: and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching.

The day is approaching!