Wow!
Another beloved brother finishes the race ðŸ™•ðŸ•»
I can honestly say my walk with the Lord was drastically improved by this mans ministry and I can only imagine the joys of his reception in heaven ðŸ~†

Well done brother David, well done ~

He greatly influenced by Christian walk. I met him on a number of occasions and read many of his books. I remember on e Sunday after his sermon he crafted a little flute from a hazel stick for my daughters.

No coincidence he left Earth on Ascension day!
