

Miracles that follow the plow :: satan hates a singing Christian..*satan hates a singing Christian.. - posted by EAGLEFLYING (), on: 2020/9/22 21:00

When I am in a battle.. I have learned a song from a dear sister who is in glory now.. Sing it loud to the enemy.

I am under the BLOOD of the LAMB.. No weapon formed against me shall prosper because I am under the BLOOD of the Lamb. No weapon formed against me shall prosper because I AM UNDER THE BLOOD OF THE LAMB..

satan hates a singing Christian

Praise stills the enemy. Lack of Praise stills the hand of GOD..

Bless you all.

In Jesus

Sister Frannie

Re: satan hates a singing Christian.. - posted by TrueWitness, on: 2020/9/23 22:32

I remember attending coffee houses in the 70s and we'd sing "Down in My Heart" and the last chorus was,

And if the devil doesn't like it he can sit on a tack

Sit on a tack,

Sit on a tack,

And if the devil doesn't like it he can sit on a tack to Stay.

Good times. Anyone else remember that one?

Speaking of good worship music, I was raised on those old Scripture in Song worship songs by a New Zealander couple, David and Dale Garratt. It still holds up quite well today. I heard an interview with them and they said the Lord instructed them to compose music that the people could sing TO the Lord directly (lyrics not about self or theology per se). I have most all of their albums and find them precious. Here is one you may remember:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=uxR1y-XwwfU>

-Daniel

Re: - posted by EAGLEFLYING (), on: 2020/9/29 20:46

Hello

yes I remember that song.. We sang it at church the other day. Every day i walk and pray and sing that song.. It helps to sing I believe.. Before any big battle the minstrels went ahead.. Praise stills the enemy.. Lack of praise stills the hand of GOD..

Bless u

In Jesus

Frannie