

Miracles that follow the plow :: My brother Christian is on chemotherapy again*My brother Christian is on chemotherapy again - posted by drifter (), on: 2021/1/1 15:14

If it's not too much trouble, if you're reading this could you please uphold my brother Christian in prayer. This is the second time he has undergone chemotherapy. He had brain and lung surgery to remove tumors as well as chemotherapy back in 2017. I believe God did a miracle in him then, and He can do it again. He is also facing financial hardship because of covid (he is a commercial painter).

Thank you and God bless.

Sorry to hear this Nigel ! Have also started to pray for him, not sure if last time you mentioned his salvation as well ? Also have you studied other forms of therapy as well?
I won't suggest any one in particular, just thought it could be worth looking into.
