gods spirit is strong in this season and the season to come is also owned by god , its the next season , where drought and darkness has its way on the earth, i pray these two seasons will last for a long time , but time is short, and tribulation is at our door , so god is empowering his people and , he is going to produce a different fruit , that will reflect his image to those whom he chooses , they will reflect the very image of Christ , in the dark days ahead, and people will surely know that this the time for the return of the lord himself , these will be the ones crying in the wilderness, make a straight path for the lord, for his feet will be walking again on the earth, the time is fulfilled and the kingdom of God is at hand, rejoice for lord has prepared his angels and saints to rule the earth in righteousness, the time is come make up your mind today that you will die for christ , the one who died for you , set it in you mind , pick up the cross today , other wise for some the cross will be too heavy to bear, and offence will seem to be your only friend , god is patient , but his patient for some is running out and chastisement will sweep his church , and the lesson will be hard lesson. pray and listen to what the spirit is saying to his people ..

Hi Brothagary,

Did you have a word from God about this or are you looking at whats going on at the moment and basing it on that?

On Tribulation ,there is a difference between Tribulation and the "Great Tribulation",Are you talking about the "Great Tribulation"?

thanks

staff ill bless as many people as possible,and no, again I'm not going to say any more about what i posted , especially to people who don't have genuine questions , but think they already have all the answers .

Re: - posted by staff, on: 2021/1/16 19:37

Hi Brothagary ,

I asked you a genuine question and you couldnt or wouldnt answer thats your choice.I asked a genuine question because I wanted to know the answer because any interaction I had with you on SI you have acted completely oddly and with no manners what so ever as if I was a dog in the street,
