Good sermon: And They Crucified Him by Art Katz

Bad sermon: Moody Founders Week 2021, Way Maker by Mark Jobe

The first is alive, weighty, full of the Spirit but spoken in an almost monotone. The latter is full of histrionics, silly stories, man's petty kingdoms and utterly plastic and lifeless. It had Greek word studies but no comprehension of how slavery worked in the time of Elisha nor when or how the Jubilee functioned. It was so dead that I couldn't finish listening to it. The former has left a deep impression on me, of God, and His view of the world.

Added (I find the last bit of this sermon especially thought provoking, and provides a chance to examine ourselves, concerning the song the saints carry within their spirits unto God.)

Bad sermons

Better not to discuss.

Yall remember Sermon Jams? I loved the Revival Hymn. I cut my teeth with a boatload of stuff I got from FireOnTheAlta r.com and some great stuff a brother named Aaron Thibault put out from OpenHisWord Ministries several years later.

ToChewOn (About the George Street Evangelist) was super encouraging.

The Bravehearted Gospel (Now Eilerslie) put out some great one a few years back.

I miss those so bad.

Re: - posted by havok20x, on: 2021/2/8 18:28

To add to that:

Paris Reidhead's So Great Salvation is excellent. I believe there are two recordings, one version he did early on (the best one imo) and another he did years later which seemed to lack the same fire (although no less true).

Re: - posted by TorontoDan, on: 2021/2/8 18:35

Actually, I think you could also phrase this, from man (carnal, fleshly) or from God. Only God is good. And in our flesh, nothing good dwells (so its all bad).

Re: - posted by drifter (), on: 2021/2/8 18:47

One of my favorite sermons is "The Precious Blood, Our Only Hope" by A. W. Tozer. "Ten Shekels and a Shirt" is essential for all believers, in my opinion. "Run For Your Life" by Carter Conlon is another one I really like. Anything by Leonard Ravenhill.

Bad sermons? Well, speaking from personal experience, all the churches in my city are completely dead, and I can't stand to be in them; so any sermon in those churches. I really am not trying to be critical and fault-finding, but I don't find Jesus present in any of them.

Re: - posted by drifter (), on: 2021/2/8 18:51

Havok, I remember fireonthealtar! There were some great sermon jams on there. In fact, one of the means that God used to awaken me and convict me of sin was the Revival Hymn. Two Christians I knew years ago were instrumental in my life; one gave me a Bible, and the other gave me some compilations and Keith Green's biography.

"Bad sermons? Well, speaking from personal experience, all the churches in my city are completely dead, and I can't stand to be in them; so any sermon in those churches."

I hear you brother, I would not be surprised if this is the case for most of us.

Re: - posted by billy1980 (), on: 2021/2/8 21:21

Bad sermons: Are sermons I cannot feel inwardly God's empowering Spirit discharging forth from within the individual preaching.

Art Katz, Tozer, Leonard Ravenhill, Zac Poonen, D.L. Moody, Paul Washer, A.B. Simpson, Sandeep Poonen, Paris and a host of others have the Spirit's empowering within their writings and messages. I can feel the difference inwardly within my spirit.

Sadly there are many without this heavenly empowerment to preach the very Words of God as the Spirit directs. It is the Spirit of God that makes a sermon good, and it is the lack of the Holy Spirit's empowerment and direction that make a sermon bad.

Re: - posted by deltadom (), on: 2021/2/9 16:00

I think the worse thing is when a pastor does not pick up a Bible and it all about them

Terrible sermons are people like Bill Johnson or Steven Furtick

Re: - posted by Kerygma1975 (), on: 2021/2/21 19:18

TorontoDan,

You said "Bad sermons? Well, speaking from personal experience, all the churches in my city are completely dead, and I can't stand to be in them; so any sermon in those churches."

I know for a fact, there are many Spirit-filled, solid, Biblical churches within the city of Toronto - so saying "All" is false and needs backing up or perhaps you live in a different city - if so which one? And can you back it up for that location?

A teachable heart can learn wisdom and contrition even from child stories.

Hebrews 13:9

Do not be carried about with various and strange doctrines. For it is good that the heart be established by grace, not with foods which have not profited those who have been occupied with them

Acts 2:42

And they continued steadfastly in the apostles' doctrine and fellowship, in the breaking of bread, and in prayers.

Romans 16:17

Avoid Divisive Persons

Now I urge you, brethren, note those who cause divisions and offenses, contrary to the doctrine which you learned, and avoid them.

1 Timothy 4:1

The Great Apostasy

Now the Spirit expressly says that in latter times some will depart from the faith, giving heed to deceiving spirits and doctrines of demons

Pastor need to preach sound doctrine

Titus 1

Qualified Elders

5 For this reason I left you in Crete, that you should (E)set in order the things that are lacking, and appoint elders in every city as I commanded youâ€” 6 if a man is blameless, the husband of one wife, (F)having faithful children not accused of dissipation or insubordination. 7 For a bishop must be blameless, as a steward of God, not self-willed, not quick-tempered, (G)not given to wine, not violent, not greedy for money, 8 but hospitable, a lover of what is good, sober-minded, just, holy, self-controlled, 9 holding fast the faithful word as he has been taught, that he may be able, by sound doctrine, both to exhort and convict those who contradict.

1 Timothy 3:1-3

New King James Version

Qualifications of Overseers

3 This is a faithful saying: If a man desires the position of a bishop, he desires a good work. 2 A bishop then must be blameless, the husband of one wife, temperate, sober-minded, of good behavior, hospitable, able to teach; 3 not given to wine, not violent, not greedy for money, but gentle, not quarrelsome, not covetous;

Pastors should preach sound doctrine

Re: - posted by Kerygma1975 (), on: 2021/2/24 12:40

All this is true - but clarifying terms is important as many throw these verses around but really mean- sound doctrine is what I deem correct - more than sound doctrine is being orthodox.
