For true evangelical faith is of such a nature that it cannot lay dormant;
but manifests itself in all righteousness and works of love;
it dies unto flesh and blood;
destroys all forbidden lusts and desires;
cordially seeks, serves and fears God;
clothes the naked;
feeds the hungry;
consoles the afflicted;
shelters the miserable;
aids and consoles all the oppressed;
returns good for evil;
serves those that injure it;
prays for those that persecute it;
teaches, admonishes and reproves with the Word of the Lord;
seeks that which is lost;
binds up that which is wounded;
heals that which is diseased
and saves that which is sound.
The persecution, suffering and anxiety which befalls it for the sake of the truth of the Lord, is to it a glorious joy and consolation.

He spoke like an apostle, it seemed his Christian experience was very much like one, a very high level of holiness, oh that God would raise up more men like him now, men who are not satisfied with dead rituals and rules, men who are willing to die rather than stay in a state of death, under the power of dead rituals based in fleshly Liturgy that has fallen to sleep into such asleep that even God's spirit won't awaken.

Amen, thanks for posting this one Greg. This brother knew his Bible and our Lord extremely closely.

It is worthwhile to read in its entirety!
