Text Sermons - posted by AbideinHim (), on: 2021/3/25 19:30

I have been blessed by the random text sermons that are being posted on the Sermon Index Website.

Il also find it quite interesting reading about the lives of the men of God that wrote these articles.

Thank you Greg!

Amen brother,

A few times the random message that came up was so interesting I had to click on it many times and it was definetly a bl essing. So many hidden gems in this archive, I am still re-mining it for my own edification.
