I have a small business I'm working on, and have many projects secular and spiritual in front of me. Plus I have some added responsibilities in my local congregation that I seriously need to focus on in an undivided way. So I'm going to be gone for a bit, probably a couple of months or so. I may look in from time to time.

I appreciate all of you and wish you the best. I don't feel lost and rudderless these days when so much is going haywire. I feel dismayed and grieved but I don't feel lost. The ultimate victory in Christ has already paved the way for mine and our ultimate victory. It's a done deal. CHRIST IS RISEN!

Blessings.

But who will now "correct" all our posts when you are away ?... ;) ;)
As I already mentioned, will sometimes pray for you.
Leave you with another song - Amazing Grace !

May the Lord bless you Brother!

And I am certain that God, who began the good work within you, will continue his work until it is finally finished on the day when Christ Jesus returns. (Philippians 1:6)

I would have never thought you would be rudderless or lost!! LOL We all have to take time off.

God bless you, I know that you will be busy serving the Lord!!
