About the speaker:

John McGregor has many years of experience in ministry, he has been a church planter, starting new churches. John also has experience in pastoring existing churches, and in working as an evangelist, teaching evangelistic strategies to churches and individuals. For 7 years John was the Executive Director of Canadian Revival Fellowship, bringing renewal to churches and believers. This varied past experience has enabled John to be a resource to churches and pastors in many countries and cultures around the world.
