œBefore the start of the Holocaust, Jewish born Rose Warmer found her Messiah. When her people were being deported, she longed to go with them. She handed herself in, was transported to Auschwitz and brought the people there the Word of God.

Rose was born in a well-to-do Jewish family in Hungary. She studied art, music and dance and led a wandering artist's life in Vienna and Budapest. In the 1930s when Nazism was rising, anti-Semitism too was growing day by day. He explained prophecy after prophecy from the Old Testament, each of them fulfilled in the life of Jesus of Nazareth. . . œ
