Recently I have had alot of Pakistani people beg for money on Facebook.
Some of the are Christians and I need wisdom in whom to accept and not to accept
As I am on not much money and they don't understand that with inflation and the cost of living sky rocketing
I need prayer for wisdom to deal with them

Have you had any people do the same on your Facebook .
As it is alegal to ask for money on Facebook.

The thing is that I understand the plight of churches in Pakistan that they can only get low paying jobs but I am not a bank.

I wish I had wisdom in dealing with these people

It is so hard when you yourself don't earn much money

Brother,

It is best to give money through people who know them on the ground. Unfortunately there are many scammers who look very genuine or at least try to.

As someone from a scam ridden country, I'll say its very foolish to just give based on emotions. Scammers abound, it's a well developed industry beyond your imaginations.
Trust God for wisdom and give based on the leading of the spirit.
