Hey guys, can you please lift me up in your prayers. I'm kind of going through a confusing time in my life with many things going on in my life including losing my dad and not living in our home right now but we're living in a hotel. I got a new job at a Christian job but I was being so oppressed while I was there that I put in my two weeks notice and today's my last day but now I'm feeling deep regret over my decision. I don't know how I didn't see that God wanted me here. Now I think it's too late to get the job back. Pray the Lord protect me and if he could open this job or the door open at this job again if possible I've told him I would Fully 100% committed this time. I was unsure before and I had my foot in and my foot out at the same time I never was fully committed at this job. So please pray for me I'm going through a lot of confusion in struggles and my family is too so your prayers are deeply need it right now. Thank you
