I was searching through premier Christian radio job search to find computer jobs and catering jobs and found this job

If you know who stonewall are they are the people who are promoting the LGBT and other things

I was shocked to see this on a Christian job page, I tried to find it again but couldn't find it

Pray that I can get a good job

May your prayer come before the Lord's throne for consideration. And if he is at all withholding the 'good' job on purpose, then may he strengthen you to stand firm as he thus get you where so ever he, in his will, would. In Christ Jesus' name

This is horrific I witnessed outside the houses of parliament when the same sex marriage bill passed and stonewall was the organisation that was promoting it
They are the organisation that promoted the trans movement as on the same day they changed there twitter page from supporting the same sex to trans bill

Now they are promoting themselves on premier Christian radio jobs site as this was where I found this advert

I so want a computer job or a chef job

The said Christian radio seems to be as lost as they are to me now (if they were not always so), brother.

PS. A good and capable Christian will scrutinise the services they are asked to promote prior to airing them. Another marker of our dire need for revival.
