I have been able to get the speaking schedule for Keith Daniel, he is going across much of the USA till the end of this year and I know that there are many on this site that have been blessed by Keith Daniels ministry to the body of Christ. So I am sure many will attend these events and be able to hear this dear brother and in some cases his whole family in person.

Keith Daniel 2005 Fall Itinerary

These dates are subject to change, also do contact the church before going to confirm times and dates of when Keith will be preaching. And also use this to pray for Mr. Daniels as he preaches across the world. If you have been blessed by this speaker in person do share a testimony here.

EDIT: just a note the Daniel's family will be sharing at the meetings in Missouri (Maranatha), Massillon, OH, and Rhinelander, WI.

It's great that he will be in Rochester, NY again! IF anyone wants to join me in November to hear Keith Daniel, call me at 585-227-5793 or email me at ajesusfreak@frontiernet.net. I would love to meet and fellowship with you if you can make it.

The church, Old Paths Bible Baptist church is having a Street Preaching conference this week, doing street evangelism in Buffalo and Rochester, NY.

In Christ,
Doug Renz

Re: - posted by sermonindex (), on: 2005/8/10 23:22

Brother Doug,

I would love to join you God willing! its only a 4 hour drive at the most to Rochester! What an exciting time it would be to attend these meetings and allow God to do a work in our heart.

I am hoping to try to attend a few other meetings God willing. I definetly will be praying for each of mr. Daniels meetings that God would break through to the people and start a revival in each of their hearts.

Just in case anyone missed it here is Keith's new schedule for this fall. Please do comment and let people know you are thinking of going. It would be great to meet some SI members at certain locations.

I am going to be going to the meetings in Rhinelander. This is the second year our church is having Keith come. It was a great blessing last year. I have some of the tapes of sermons he preached last year here. If you might be interested please e-mail me. His family will be with him in Rhinelander this year. I hope maybe we can see some of you there.

i will share a testimony, ive been to keith daniels meetings in 2003, and 2004. i can truly say that his personal presence had as much of an impact on me as his straight forward preaching. it was an answer to prayer that he came to our valley in montana, and i have been forever (eternally) changed! God used this brother to provoke me so that i would never settle for anything less than vital reality with God. My friends and i travelled to another state to hear him, it was one of the best things that ever happened to us.

Re: Family Camp in Missouri with Keith Daniel, on: 2005/8/13 20:12

Hi Everyone,

I just wanted to give some more information about our meetings in Missouri with Keith Daniel and his family.

Our church (Maranatha Baptist Church) is hosting our annual family camp with the Keith Daniel family speaking. Keith will preach Thursday, Friday, Saturday evenings and Sunday morning. Jenny Daniel will share with the ladies (all ages) Friday and Saturday morning. Roy Daniel (the Daniel's second son) will preach to the men and boys Friday and Saturday morning, and also to everyone Sunday morning before his father preaches. Samuel Daniel (their youngest son) will preach Saturday evening before his father preaches.

The afternoons are generally free to do with as you wish. It is a great opportunity to just get away and seek God. Our location is at Baptist Hill camp just outside of Mt. Vernon. It is always beautiful in the fall on the 'hill'. :-)

I personally have been much refreshed and encouraged during our family camps. The messages are always so convicting (the work of the Holy Spirit) and I am always inspired to press on toward the mark (Phil. 3:12-15 and Romans 12:1-2).

So, let me encourage you to consider attending these meetings! I will also add that if you are interested, please contact Randy & Christina Coffman. We could fill up very quickly and run out of sleeping quarters. :- (A brochure is in the making for our family camp, if you wish to receive one just e-mail a request to don_kdtour@minister.com.

If anyone has any questions...just ask! I would be more than happy to answer them.

Please, please, continue to pray. It is not man that changes hearts, but God! Let us join together in believing prayer for God to do a mighty work in men's hearts through the ministry of this humble servant of the Lord.

Cheerily in Christ,
Roniya

Re: - posted by hredii (), on: 2005/8/14 2:54

Hello Roniya,

A friend and myself have our heart set on going. I was wondering if there is any cost to attend the camp? Also if we were able to go could someone from your church pick us up from the airport and take us back to the airport or would it be in our best interest to rent a car? This is a wonderful opportunity.

Yes we will join with you and others together in believing prayer for God to do a mighty work in men's hearts through the ministry of this humble servant of the Lord.
God is certainly able to do so.

Re:, on: 2005/8/14 20:35

Hi hredii,

It would be wonderful to have you and your friend come! Yes, there is a cost for lodging and meals. But we have kept it as minimal as possible (it is $7.25 a night and $2.50 for meals). I will send you a brochure with the prices and other info.

I think it will work out for someone to pick you up at the Springfield airport. We only live about fifteen minutes away, so something should work out. :-) Let us know more specifics if everything works out (you can either send me a pm or e-mail).

God bless!

Re: - posted by PreachParsly (), on: 2005/8/16 13:38

Roniya,

My pastor and I plan on going if at all possible. We can't stay for the entire time. We have to be back home to minister. Would it be a problem to just show up for a few of the meetings? Or do you need to be registered? If that is OK. Do you think space will be a problem? One more question... :-) Can you give me the address to the place, so I can find it on Google? Thank you very much.

Re:, on: 2005/8/16 16:08

Hi PreachParsly,

That would be wonderful if you could come to any of the meetings. The only need to register is if you wish to stay at the camp and eat any meals. We just need a head count for that. :-)

At this point space should not be a problem, especially if there is just two of you.

Here is the address:

Baptist Hill Assembly
9519 Hwy. V
Mt Vernon, MO

I can e-mail you our brochure which has specific directions (but no map).

Blessings,

Roniya

If anyone else is going please post.

Re: - posted by sermonindex (), on: 2005/9/2 4:02

Roniya,

I am wanting to go also to this initial meeting that Keith Daniel is doing on his tour. I will be doing a road trip from California to Canada, and I think I can time it to make it for these meetings. I am not sure if I could stay the whole time but I would definitely like to stay for a day of the meetings or 2. Could there be a room available for me and meals?

Man its great to hear other brothers from the site going!! how exciting. And to finally hear Keith Daniel live.. that saves me a long trip to south africa that I was going to do. :-P

Re: - posted by sermonindex (), on: 2005/9/2 4:03

Adam, perhaps I could pick you guys up from the airport.. let me know times etc.. It would be wonderful if God works this all out.

Re: - posted by Tears_of_joy, on: 2005/9/2 4:55

I would like to be there, but I am so far away - other side of the world :-)

Brother Greg please share with Mr. Daniel how many are blessed by his sermons through SI. Also many of the sermons that we are getting from here are copied to cd's and shared to many others.

May God bless you and leads you,
Save trip also for those who will travel

Re: I'm Going to Montana to see the South African Stalwart! - posted by Des (), on: 2005/9/2 5:15

Yes Keith Daniel, 'The South African Stalwart' is coming to the USA! I do believe that I'm going to either Kalispell, MT October 14th-16th or Libby, MT October 17th-19th. Or maybe both! Only God knows. I look forward to the ten hour drive from Vancouver, Washington.

How do you know you're saved? You now get more excited about seeing a man of God preach then when you were lost and your favorite pagan Rock and Roll band came to town to spew its immoral filth.

It's too bad that he won't be coming to the Washington or Oregon for this dark part of the world needs a man like Keith Daniel to shake and wake the sleepers out of their slumber.

God bless,

Des

Re:, on: 2005/9/2 11:08

Hi sermonindex,

That sounds wonderful! I will send you a brochure for our family camp. If you could at least let Randy and Christina Coffman know that you are tentatively planning to come that would be good. Space is filling up and there are people coming from several different states. I would highly recommend reserving a space!

If anyone else is planning to come and stay at the camp please register!!!

The deadline for the lower meal costs is September 16th. My guess is that we will be full by that date. :-D

Please keep praying for all the different places Brother Keith will be speaking!

Blessings,

Roniya :-)

Re: - posted by sermonindex (), on: 2005/9/2 14:50

I have registered and I am excited to be going!! thanks Roniya for all your help. I would love to be able to live webcast the speaking of the Daniels but I am doubtful there will be a high-speed internet connection where they are at on the camp.

Hope to see many brothers and sisters there from SI.

Re:, on: 2005/9/2 19:49

This is so exciting! It will be wonderful to meet all the Slers. :-D Is there anyone else planning to just drive in to the meetings and not stay at the camp? I am curious to know who is within driving distance.

Keep praying for the meetings!

Re: - posted by PreachParsly (), on: 2005/9/8 14:08

Should we have a section roped off for SI people? :-)

There are a few from my church(myself included!) that are going. This is great to see so many people coming. I can't wait to meet everyone.

I am going to drive for atleast one night of it. I am from Northwest Arkansas. I will be there Friday night for sure. Saturday I don't know because we will have to be back for Sunday morning service. I don't want to keep my pastor out all night before Sunday :-). Maybe I can talk him into going back on Saturday.

Re: - posted by PreachParsly (), on: 2005/9/8 14:09

How many people are expected to attend?

Re:, on: 2005/9/8 15:42

That is a very good question PreachParsly! I am wondering that myself. :-). We have about two hundred registered to stay at the camp. But there will be people like you all that will be driving in. So there could be anywhere from 250-300 people and possibly more.

Praise God! It is so encouraging that Christians are hungry to hear the Word of God from this dear brother from SA.

It will be interesting to see how many come through hearing about it on Sermon Index.

Keep praying for the meetings!

Looking up,
Roniya

Ohh, I like that PreachParsly :-D . That's a great idea! There is going to have to be some way for everyone that comes to identify themselves as part of SI ;-).

Re: - posted by sermonindex (), on: 2005/9/8 16:09

I was going to ask if its possible to bring SermonIndex materials such as audio cds and newsletters to have somewhere to give away. I could make enough to give to everyone at the camp. Let me know about that.

:-) No conferences in California. Left out of the SI circle of in-person fellowship. Oh well, I can always listen to the Keith Daniel teachings provided for free on here (The Word of God sermon has really blessed me). And I have had the blessing of meeting a couple of SI folk in person. You guys have fun and post how it all went.

Okay, lets get this straight!

The meetings will be at a Baptist camp. Our church does not have our own building so we rent the auditorium at this camp every week. This is where all the meetings with the Daniel family at Maranatha Baptist Church will be held.

The dates ARE September 29 through October 2. They start Thursday night and go through the Sunday morning messages.

Hope that helps! Please give the person that gave you the previous information the correct info. Thanks!

Blessings,

Re: - posted by Yodi (), on: 2005/9/16 11:44

I just got a letter in the mail informing me that I'm being sent to a conference of my own by my church at around the same time you all will be going to this one. It was a nice surprise and an encouragement to me at this time in my life. When things don't go as you had planned and hoped for, it's easy, for me at least, to wonder what God has for me. Everyone keeps telling me, "God wants His best for you" but it's hard to know what God's best is right now when it's such a fight to get through each day. All this to say, I think God is blessing me by letting me go to a conference of my own. I know He will meet me there and I hope my heart will be open to all He has to show me and teach me.

I know all you guys will be blessed at this conference. Again, I would like to know when the teachings from that conference are up on SI. It seems that Roniya has that covered. Thanks.

Re: - posted by sermonindex (), on: 2005/9/16 14:32

I am looking forward to meeting everyone there and especially to hear Keith Daniel share his heart. Please people on SermonIndex pray that the times in the meetings will be heavenly and God will step down in our midst. May we never be the same.

Re: - posted by Yodi (), on: 2005/9/16 14:40

I was just listening to a sermon from Keith Daniel on here that a brother suggested. Just his prayer alone... made me bummed again that I can't go. I know you guys are all going to be blessed. And not just with the great teachings, but with fellowship with one another. My prayers will be with you. I hope you will be posting up the teachings from the conference Greg. I look forward to that.

Re: - posted by sermonindex (), on: 2005/9/23 14:48

Re:, on: 2005/9/24 20:51

I am also really looking forward to the conference. It will be so wonderful to see the Daniel family again (pray for them, as they are traveling right now from SA) and I am looking forward to meeting everyone who is coming. I am also looking forward to hearing after the meetings what God has done in everyone's heart.

Please pray for this meetings and also for all the other places Bro. Keith will be sharing. Thanks to all of you who are lifting these meetings up to the Throne of Grace.

Re: - posted by PreachParsly (), on: 2005/9/26 13:45

I'll be there Friday night! I can only be there for the Friday night meeting. How big is the auditorium ? I'm just wondering how hard it will be to find SI people..

Re:, on: 2005/9/26 13:52

It's not that big, PreachParsly. 450 people will probably max it out. And there are about 230 or so registered to stay at the camp.

But how to identify all the SI people will be interesting. Someone said just look for the shining faces...but I think that the SI people won't be the only ones with shining faces. :-)

If anyone has an idea...go for it. :-)

Re: - posted by sermonindex (), on: 2005/9/28 13:59

Brothers and Sisters,

As I alluded to in another thread, I will not be going to the Keith Daniel Conference in Mount Vernon, MO. I really feel a peace about just continuing the road trip at this point to Canada. I do plan on taking another road trip in November to see Keith Daniel preach in Rochester and visit some brothers at that point. I will be praying still for the meetings and for all the brethren that meet. It would be great to hear praise reports from all the SI'ers that meet each other to share it in this thread. :-)

Re: - posted by earnestlycontend (), on: 2005/9/28 16:39

As for now, I'm planning on driving through the night Friday and being in MO on Saturday morning.

I agree that the Rochester meeting would be great to attend. Two birds with one stone - find old Finney revival history and listen to Keith Daniel! :-D 8-

Hope y'all have an awesome time in MO at the convention. May God bless it to all of your hearts and everyone else who goes.

We were planning on going but this Sunday our car gave up it's life (whatever life a car has :o)) so it looks like the Lord is directing us to stay here.

Can't wait to hear about how it goes. I wonder if they'll record the messages?

May Jesus Christ be glorified!

Re:, on: 2005/9/29 0:04

You will be greatly missed, Greg. I among others was looking forward to meeting you. :-o But the Lord has a reason in this change of plans. I hope and pray that the Lord blesses the rest of your trip to Canada. And also that it does work out for you to go to the meetings in Rochester.

Blessings,

Re:, on: 2005/9/29 0:07

We will miss you all4Christ! I was really looking forward to seeing you again (we met up in Indianapolis last winter) and meeting your family.

Do keep the meetings in your prayers.

Yes, the messages will be recorded. They should be put on Sermon Index and I can also e-mail you a list of what we have available after the meetings are over if you wish.

May the Lord bless you and your family! I hope your car situation is resolved soon. :-o

Looking to Jesus,

Re: - posted by sermonindex (), on: 2005/9/30 0:54

Well at this moment everyone should be at Mount Vernon for the conference. There is no internet connection there so people won't be able to share from there. I am going to God willing get up ALL the messages from the meetings onto SermonIndex. I am looking forward to pictures (if you could email them to me that would be great: sermonindex@mac.com) and some testimonies.

Re:, on: 2005/10/2 23:23

"O God, thou art my God; early will I seek thee: my soul thirsteth for thee, my flesh longeth for thee in a dry and thirsty land, where no water is; To see thy power and thy glory, so as I have seen thee in the sanctuary.

Because thy lovingkindness is better than life, my lips shall praise thee.

Thus will I bless thee while I live: I will lift up my hands in thy name.

My soul shall be satisfied as with marrow and fatness; and my mouth shall praise thee with joyful lips." Psalms 63:1-5

Greetings Brothers and Sisters at SI,

First of all, thank you so very much to every single one of you who lifted up in prayer our meetings with the Daniel family.

God did great and mighty things! I am still in such awe at how our mighty God brought these meetings together, brought the people in, and filled the camp with such a beautiful spirit. It was an awesome time.

I am absolutely exhausted right now :-)(So I will share later on what God did in my own heart. I am sure there will be at least a few others with testimonies.

Please keep Brother Keith in your prayers as he will be preaching tomorrow evening at Versailles, MO. I know he is very tired from our meetings. Thank you for praying for him and his dear family.

Oh, I only wish more of you could have come...I would really encourage you to go hear Brother Keith on this tour. He is an amazing man of God.

May the Lord bless each one of you!
To God be the glory, great things HE hath done!

Rejoicing,
Roniya :-)

Looking forward to the reports!

Unfortunately, I couldn't make it myself.

Thanks Joy,

So glad that this turned out the way you described, sorry I couldn't make it either...

This will be a welcome bit of news to counteract some of the more difficult things with quite a few members here, the dev il seems to be all up in arms about something... maybe somebody stepped on his toe...

where's my boots..

Hey Joy,

This is Donny from the Keith Daniel's meeting in Mt Vernon. I was really impacted by Keith Daniel his family and the people there at the Maranatha church. There were so many Godly examples in peoples lives and in the little things that could have been overlooked but weren't. The love of Jesus could be seen in the believers lives there and it encouraged me so much. It was great to get out of my comfort zone and get to know different families there and mainly listen to people. I learned some things that will take some time to put into my own life but it was a good time for me. Your dad was really a blessing and he was one of the people there that encouraged me in my walk with the Lord. It was such a pretty place and was a great vacation as well as a time to grow closer with the Lord. I especially enjoyed the sermon about Keith's father-in-law. I think people will really be blessed by it here on sermonindex when it gets put on the site as well as the other messages.

Re: - posted by PreachParsly (), on: 2005/10/3 9:37

I went Friday night. It was great to hear this man of God pour out his heart. He preached on the Parable of the Sower that night. It was a service I'm sure to remember for awhile. What stood out to me was how quiet everyone was. This was not a dead service quiet but a reverent quiet. I would catch myself not moving a muscle for maybe 15-20 mins at a time. I was just captivated.

Just to give an example of how captivated everyone was by the word of God:

When the service was closing, the pastor must have stepped out with some people that were praying. Keith said his closing prayer. Everyone was standing and he was walking off from the pulpit. He told everyone there were refreshments over in the kitchen. He was about to walk to the back, but no one has moved a muscle! He said " Oh, everyone is still standing." No one wanted to leave or move. Then he asked a young boy to pray.

He asked him to hold his lapel mic while he prayed. I think it was silence for about 20 secs. What was going through my mind was this young man isn't saved and is about to be convicted and be saved (I guess I was thinking this because of the long pause.) Oh but then he began to pray. It was a beautiful prayer! I still remember some of what he said. "Lord from only you can we have salvation. Lord let every truth of Christ we have ever heard lay heavy upon our hearts."

I didn't get to meet anyone from SI :-o ...but it was still great!

Re: - posted by sermonindex (), on: 2005/10/3 9:56

Wow this sounds tremendous from what has been shared. I know the Lord was working and did powerful things. I will be seeing if its possible to get the audio recordings up here soon. Also did anyone take any pictures?

Family Ministry

It is so wonderful to see an entire family ministering together for the Lord abroad. Here is a picture of Roy, Keith, Jenny, & Samuel Daniel as they are ministering in Mt Vernon, Missouri. I am looking forward to hear mr daniels preach in the upcoming preaching session in rochester, NY, God Willing.

Re: testimony, on: 2005/10/5 21:47

Okay, here is the testimony of what God did in my heart and I also wanted to give those who were not able to come a 'picture' of what it was like. Forgive me, it is quite lengthy. :-o

As I look back over our meetings with the Keith Daniel family at our annual family camp my heart is filled with awe at the mighty work God did. God was the One who did it. It was not any particular individual, nor was it the prayer meetings though God did indeed hear us and answer marvelously in a way that brought glory to His Name. It was God who had mercy on His people and visited us.

There was a sweet spirit amongst the Believers who came. A spirit of oneness and unity pervaded our hearts and brought us close to God and to each other. There were many people with diverse backgrounds and walks with God, but not once did I myself hear a conversation that was controversial or of a dividing spirit (there may have been, I just didn't hear any). I heard several testify how amazing it was to visit with brothers and sisters in the Lord that you had just met and to visit and share with one another as if we had known each other for years. Before these meetings I and others had prayed to God and asked for the conversations to be edifying and uplifting to the Believers. And praise be to God He did that and laid it on many hearts to talk about our beloved Jesus and what He has done in our lives.

I personally was blessed by all of the prayer times. From the one in the morning that consisted of a few of my sisters in the Lord to the ladies prayer meeting in the afternoon and the final prayer meeting held just before the evening service God was there in our midst hearing our prayers. We divided up into groups of 3-5 people and prayed. I was admonished and smitten by the fervency and burdens of others; particularly in praying for the lost and also for our country's evangelical pulpits and churches. I was encouraged and blessed to hear others pray what was burdening my own heart.

It was amazing to see how God brought everything together. From the registration to the music to the kitchen work to the tape ministry and in every thing God worked all the details out and accomplished great things. It was encouraging to see all the people God brought to these meetings. Eleven or twelve states were represented. My life was encouraged and impacted by different people that I fellowshiped with. Glory to God for the desire He has put in hearts to seek a deeper walk with Him. It was glorious to hear of the work that He has been doing across our land in the hearts of His children. Also, our Creator blessed us with beautiful weather! :-D

The messages that God laid on the hearts of His servants were powerful and anointed, and ministered to many hearts. The first night's message was Genesis 1 on God's magnificent creation. It was full of fact upon fact, verse upon verse about God's intricate detail of creating this vast universe. Mrs. Jenny Daniel shared with the ladies on God being our Potter and we are the clay. Here are a few excerpts from my notes. "Sometimes we sink because we add things to our schedule that are not part of what God wants us to do." I loved this statement: "The Potter knows we are clay not stainless steel!" Friday night's message was on the Parable of the Sower and was very convicting to me in the area of witnessing. Mr. Daniel talked about that when we go to work (or out in the public was the way I applied it to my life) our main purpose is not to make money or to run our errands but rather to win souls. For me it was the difference of talking about the need to witness versus making it my focus and goal wherever I am. Saturday night's message was called My Godly Father-in-law. Here are some excerpts from what I gleaned. "Andrew Murray taught total absolute surrender to God. God will consecrate what you dedicate. Does the Spirit of God have absolute control over me? From absolute surrender the first thing he did staggered the Christians around him.Â”

Â”The little woman was brave and she turned the world upside down. He (Jannie Le Roux) saw her example and started witnessing to every soul he saw.Â”

Â”God gives you lessons and exams in His school. Be ever watchful of His tests. Â”Give me the grace I don’t have to pass this test.Â” Nothing happens that isn’t a test and it will be given again and again until you pass it.Â”

Â”Do you honestly think in your darkest moment God has forsaken you? God does His greatest work in your darkest moment.Â”

Â”Three things that caused him to change the world: 1. He wasn’t just saved. He had a personal Calvary and was absolutely surrendered to God and filled with God. 2. He never missed his quiet time once. 3. He never neglected a soul that came near him that he could witness to.Â”

Â”Have you ever staggered your world in these three areas?Â”

On Sunday morning Roy Daniel preached on loving Jesus Christ. Â”Oh for a church that loves Jesus Christ. Are you excited to meet with Jesus?Â”

Mr. Daniel’s final message was on the life of Daniel and what I gleaned from this message was Â”Am I uncompromisingly faithful to God in the circumstances He places me in?Â” Â”Through your uncompromising faithfulness many will turn to God.Â”

There is so much more that can be shared. I hope others that were there will testify what God did in their own hearts. May God continue the work that he started at this convention. May it spread to all of the other places Keith Daniel and his family will be preaching and sharing the Word. I look forward to hearing testimonies from these other meetings.

May the Lamb that was slain receive the full reward of His sufferings in our unworthy lives as we go forth and apply to our hearts and lives what God has taught us.

Donny, it was a wonderful blessing to meet you and all the others from the Dallas group. I praise God that He brought each one of you to the meetings. Ya'll were a blessing. :-)

We are working on getting the messages to Greg to put on the website. Pray that we get them edited and sent to him soon.

Thanks again to everyone who came to the meetings and also to those who prayed for them. God only knows the eternal impact these meetings will have on lives. Let us keep praying for the other places Brother Keith Daniel and his family will be sharing. Tonight he is at Versailles and then the meetings in Ohio start on Friday.

Looking up,
Joy :-D

Re: About the meeting in Mount Vernon - posted by DS, on: 2005/10/12 10:05

I just wanted to add that this was my first time to hear Brother Keith Daniel in person. There are many excellent preachers that feed you the Word of God. They break it down so that you can easily digest it. But Bro. Keith teaches you how to grow your own food(the Word of God in your heart) by watering and fertilizing it, and tending carefully to it, by telling us we MUST have our quiet time in the Word and in prayer and thanksgiving EVERYDAY(that must be our priority), no matter what else comes our way.
There is no way you can grow just by listening to any preacher...unless you spend quality time with the Lord every day. No one ever told me this before, or maybe I was just too hard hearted to hear. Thank you Lord for sending some one to deliver this msg and sending the Holy Spirit to open my eyes and ears.
I do thank God for this special place, SI, where for the very first time I heard this msg. I decided i would listen to all the preachers on the top ten list. So, I also thank God that you made a top ten list, other wise I never would have listened to Keith Daniel in my life, in almost all likelihood.
The teaching Jenny gave to the women touched my heart so much...she told us about the Potter...and how we want to hang on to our various little lumps, when God sees that we need to give ourselves completely to Him...to smooth us out so we are a useable vessel.
And the sermon by Bro. Keith that really touched my heart was about having a "personal Calvary". I never understood the meaning before, that night. The title of that sermon was "My Godly Father-in-law". I pray that the Holy Spirit will open your hearts and spirits to receive this wonderful msg.
Their son Roy delivered a beautiful msg. and gave scripture from the Old Testament, but in reference to Jesus, in places that i never would have thought were talking about Jesus. What zeal he has for the Lord.
I thank the Lord for the life of their youngest son, Samuel, who gave us a scripture reading from the Holy Bible. What a blessing this humble family is to God's people. Thank you for letting me share. God Bless you.

Couldn't agree with you more, there is just no getting around it. "As was His custom" comes to mind, so it should be our s.

It really is something to go back close to two years now and realise that even though some of Keith's message's were up here, it wasn't until a mention by some saint got our attention. Prior to that they were almost just sitting waiting to be discovered. It makes me wonder what other treasures are hidden here sometimes...

Reading about all this form everyone that got to go hear the Daniel family is very encouarging. Thanks to all for sharing.

Re: Keep praying for Keith Daniel, on: 2005/10/16 14:47

Dear Praying Saints,

This is Keith Daniel's last evening at Kalispell, Montana. My dad is at the meetings and said there are quite a few needy people there. It sounds like attendance has been around 70-100 people. Pray for this last meeting.

I talked with some that are a part of the fellowship at Rhinelander that hosted the meetings there and they said the meetings went very well. From what I gathered it sounded like there were quite a few people that came to the meetings that were not part of the fellowship there. Praise God for drawing in those people!

Tomorrow evening Bro. Keith preaches at Libby, Montana (about 1 hour from Kalispell). There are a lot of Amish in this area. Pray God brings many people from the community to the meetings.

Keep praying for Bro. Keith. Pray for the fresh anointing of God upon Him and also for physical strength. He preaches every day of the week except for Thursday.

"Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need."
" Hebrews 4:16

Re: Prayer Update on Libby, MT, on: 2005/10/18 15:55

I talked to my dad this afternoon concerning the meetings at Libby, Montana. Last night it was a small crowd. Some Amish relatives of Ora Miller (the brother who is hosting these meetings) did come, praise the Lord! My dad called it a 'pioneer work'. They are praying and believing God to do a great work this evening and tomorrow evening. Really pray for there to be a break through into this strongly religious (Amish) community.

Thank you for praying!

"Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us, Unto him be glory in the church by Christ Jesus throughout all ages, world without end. Amen." Ephesians 3:20-21

Hi Roniya,

I was wondering.. is there a big Amish or Menninite community around where you are from? I remember when I was going to see Mr. Daniel that I seen a few signs that had a picture of a horse and buggy and said share the road.. or something to that effect.

I know there are some people that use to be Menninites (they are still very close) that are from Monroe, MO.. or I think that is correct.

Yes, we do have quite a few Amish and Mennonite people in our area. I don't know how large the Amish community is... every now and then we see a buggy on Sunday afternoon. :-) Where we used to live (45 miles aprox. west of where we are now) there is a strong conservative Mennonite community.

I am unfamiliar with the group at Monroe, MO (I have never heard of Monroe...sorry!)

Re: Prayer Update, on: 2005/10/21 11:53

Brother Keith is speaking this evening at Grace Bible Church in Stone Lake, Wisconsin. He will be speaking twice on Saturday and Sunday. Pray for him as he prepares his messages.

LaMar Troyer (715.865.2511) is the contact person for these meetings. Is anyone from SI going to be there?

Was anyone from SermonIndex at the Kalispell meetings? I heard that there was a group that drove twelve hours from Canada to the meetings and that they found out about it on SermonIndex. It would be great to hear a report from them. :-)

The rest of the Libby meetings went well. The peak attendance was the second night with 39 people in attendance. Pray for the seed that was sown in hearts.

Keep praying!

Re:, on: 2005/11/7 10:39

Greetings Praying Saints,

This morning my father talked with David Tietz, the host for the meetings in Michigan with Brother Keith. The meetings here went very well. Their congregation numbers about 75 people and around 300 attended the meetings, praise the LORD! Bro. Keith spoke seven times. So please pray for strength; it is very exhausting to speak so many times. It sounds like people came in from all over including Canada. Were any Sler's there? It would be a wonderful blessing to hear more testimonies from the places Bro. Keith has been.

Bro. Keith is speaking tonight in S. Milwaukee, Wisconsin. The S. Milwaukee Church of the Nazarene is the hosting church; contact Tom Rodriguez for the meeting place (#414.762.6169). This church is having a funeral this morning. One of their members passed away last week. She was a dear older saint of the Lord's. Keep them in your prayers. Bro. Keith will be there November 7-9, he travels to Wolcott, CT for the next meetings, November 11-13.

Let us keep praying and believing God to be glorified!

Blessings,
Joy

I should be going to the meeting in Rochester! Hopefully I will be staying with brother Doug Renz on this site and we will have a few days of fellowship during the conference.

Also I just got up the audio messages from the Mount Vernon, MO conference that was preached by Keith Daniel on this tour about 2 months ago:

(Mount Vernon) Daniel

(Mount Vernon) My Godly Father in-law

(Mount Vernon) The Creation in Genesis

(Mount Vernon) The Parable of the Sower

enjoy some videos should be coming soon also..

Thanks for all your hard work Greg. I will be checking out "My Godly Father-in-law" upon Roniya's recommendation.

That would be awesome if you got to hang out with Doug and his family. They are a neat family, have the cutest kids, and I'm sure you will be blessed with rich fellowship! If they remember me, tell them I say "hi". Thanks. =)

Hi Brother Greg,

I am still planning on attending these mtgs. You are welcome to stay with us during your visit to Rochester, NY. I need to call the church and find out what time Keith is preaching.

I left Charlie Barkowski a voice message and will let you know what time Keith is preaching.

Yodi, yes, our children remember you and the visit, especially Lillianna. It was a special time.

I am in an evangelistic play at Bethel Full Gospel church in Rochester, and I found out that this is one of the churches that Charles Finney preached at during the revivals at that time. What great history in Rochester.

May God be glorified! Amen.

Hello. I am not able to obtain meeting times from the contact number in Wolcott. Does anyone know what the meeting schedule is? Most likely, I would only be able to make the Friday and Saturday meetings. I know this is late notice, but I thought I would get a call back by this point. Any help appreciated. Also, if anyone has times for the Rochester meetings, that would save me a call there also.

Many thanks,

Koheleth,

On Keith Daniel's news letter, it has Wolcott
fri at 7pm
sat at 6pm
sun 11am and 6pm.

Hope this helps and I hope you are able to make it.

Also the Rochester times are:
fri 7pm
sat 9am and 6pm
sun 9:30 am

Re:, on: 2005/11/11 10:26

Koheleth,

I would advise that you continue to try to contact these churches to confirm their meeting times and places. Here is Old Path's (the church in Rochester) website: www.opbbc.org
I will send you a pm with a few more phone numbers.

I am looking forward to hearing how these meetings go. :-) not sure! :) the session 3 was the message: My godly father so I didnt choose to get that up again. Hmm just looking again the session 1 is "the sower and the seed" and the 2nd session doesn't have a name.

I think its ok to get duplicates up on the site from different venues that keith daniel speaks at. I am sure the Holy Spirit uniquely uses each one to reach someone!
