It's true the Devil can be in the Church House Now! - posted by godsangel1, on: 2005/8/31 17:07

This in reference to the comments about the dispute with the pastor and his congregation. I am a member of the church and I stopped going because of the ungodly problems that were going on. Many Sundays, church was not how a place of God was supposed to be. Instead of a pastor teaching God's word and living by his word, this pastor chose not to. He is a thief, liar, and mobster. He has threatened many members who know his sinful doings and for one thing for sure, God never sleeps and will help the good win the battle in the end. Be blessed and love one another in Jesus name Amen..... :-D
