I wanted to post what we know so far. The results of my wife Anna's tests were much better than they could have been. It happens that she has a hypermetabolic mass in her left thyroid gland- which may or may not be malignant. This was found by the PET scan. This scan is done by injecting radioactive glucose into the bloodstream. Cells upload the glucose for energy, but abnormal or cancerous cells upload glucose very fast as they are highly "metabolic", hence, they burn through the radioactive glucose very fast and store up the radioactivity in that area. A scan locates the concentrated area.

She is scheduled today at 2:30 Central time to see a specialist. They will likely do some sort of biopsy. We praise God that there were no indications that any cancer cells had spread to lymph nodes.

All past and future prayers are greatly appreciated!!

God Bless,

-Robert

Dear Robert!

I got to know you a little bit, although my native language is not English and do not understand exactly what is going on... however I will pray for Anna and you. And I like to encourage you with this song

Selah - You Are My Hiding Place

*You are my hiding place
You always fill my heart
With songs of deliverance
Whenever I am afraid
I will trust in You*

*I will trust in You
Let the weak say
I am strong
In the strength of the Lord*

Miracles that follow the plow :: Prayer For My Wife

*You are my hiding place
You always fill my heart
With songs of deliverance
Whenever I am afraid
I will trust in You*

*I will trust in You
Let the weak say I am strong
In the strength of the Lord
I will trust in You*

you can download this right clicking on

Thank you all so much for your prayers.

William,

There are times in our lives when we know that God has made Himself known and we don't know whether to marvel or weep or both. When all scientific and mathematical probabilities have been exhausted and there is but one explanation- the Lord hath made Himself known. - So with a tear in my eye I must weep and marvel- for "You Are My Hiding Place" has been the song of my heart through the days of these trying times. I have sung that song (psalm) and found comfort in the midst of the storm; and

Yet you, on the other side of the world, of another country and language has been inspired to relay this song to me. Through an obedient and sensitive servant It is God saying to me, "I know where you are and I AM your hiding place- you can trust in Me..."

For who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he may instruct him?... and again... O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! how unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways past finding out! (Romans 13)... and again... Thou art my hiding place and my shield: I hope in thy word. Depart from me, ye evildoers: for I will keep the commandments of my God. Uphold me according unto thy word, that I may live: and let me not be ashamed of my hope. Hold thou me up, and I shall be safe: and I will have respect unto thy statutes continually. (Psalm 119)

Well beloved we just received the Dr's report. Praise the Lord! It happens that there were two specialists there to examine my wife (one was a very experienced older Dr.). After looking at all the results of the CT, PET scan, blood work and further examination- they both have ruled out cancer all together! The diagnosis is an overactive thyroid gland and it can be treated with medication. The lymph node swelling was unrelated and believed to be caused by psoriasis in the area of the nodes. Nothing at all to be overly concerned with.

Praise the Lord!!!

Thanks so much to all for your prayers. God is so good!

God Bless,

-Robert

Robert, I have been praying since I first saw your post on the Announcement board.

I am so very-very grateful to hear this news.

Please tell Anna, she helped to sort of 'save my life', even though she is not aware of it.

Please look on my request for prayer here on this "Miracles" board and see what snapped my thinking around.

That was a MAJOR snap too. I was almost beyond hope.

Thank you both very-very much.

With His Love and much happiness for you Both.

Annie

Robert,

thanking God with you and your family! Praise God for this wonderful news! I certainly know the fears that go along with all of this first hand. It certainly makes everyday seem more precious, doesn't it?

In His love, Chanin

My dear Robert,

I'm going on a weeklong self directed retreat, and I printed up your request and will faithfully and lovingly make intercession for your dear wife. Then we will share with the Lord Jesus in the glorious praise reports that you will write on this thread. Much love to you and her in Christ, Neil

I'm sorry I missed this topic. However, I had read in another topic, I think the one about Greg's road trip back up to Canada, that your wife needed prayer, so I was praying. And I'm very glad to read this praise report! Thank God your wife will be alright!

Re: - posted by RobertW (), on: 2005/10/6 13:00

Thanks again to all for your prayers. It certainly was a roller coaster ride. I praise God that she is will be fine. I was actually holding the Dr. report that said tumor or cancer- we were hoping it would only be a tumor. But God does exceeding and abundant above all we could ever ask or think! No tumor and no cancer!!!
