

Miracles that follow the plow :: Prayer for Purity*Prayer for Purity - posted by deltadom (), on: 2005/10/16 11:51

I just need a prayer for purity, I was looking up some stuff for some bibles it is always when I am doing something christian that impure things get into my mind or on the screen, I need prayer for purity

I need also prayer for my housemates and that I would be more sensitive to god and that I will pray because I am finding it hard to pray at the moment I cant break through I am also worried that i will not have enough money to get through this term can you pray for that aswell.

I really want to bless you I have bought some cds so some people at the cu can listen to some of the sermons.
Dom

Re: Prayer for Purity - posted by crsschk (), on: 2005/10/16 12:21

Quote:

-----it is always when I am doing something christian

Brother, you are Christian 24-7.
Let that sink into your very soul.

I can understand the difficulties in praying, have just come through a short season of this struggle with myself. And that is the problem "myself", sometimes you just have to get to the point of giving up and it can be a fight to get there. This might be of some help;

(https://www.sermonindex.net/modules/newbb/viewtopic.php?viewmodeflat&order0&topic_id7625&forum34&post_id&refreshGo) How Christ Delivered Me From The Power Of Sin by Ernest O'Neill

Re: - posted by sermonindex (), on: 2005/10/16 12:48

I am sorry to be frank brother but praying by yourself isn't going to do any good. You need to go before your pastor, elder, or strong christian friend and pray and confess to him. Do it and you will expose the lies of the enemy.

"...lovers of pleasure more then lovers of God." -2 timothy 3:4

"For he that is dead is freed from sin." -Romans 6:7

"...grieve not the holy Spirit of God." -Ephesians 4:30

Re: - posted by lamusktrat (), on: 2005/10/16 19:01

To SI

Not trying to be argumentative or create dissention, but where did you come up with that conclusion. Why would he need to confess this to another man. Isn't Christ the only real High Priest and praying to Him alone isn't sufficient?

Re: - posted by PaulWiglaf, on: 2005/10/16 23:55

lamusktrat:

Yes, this is an interesting point, but haven't we also heard from the Lord, "If two of you shall agree on earth concerning any thing that they shall ask, it shall be done for them of my Father which is in heaven"? So, though the Lord is our Almighty Intercessor, He also asks us to be accountable to and prayerful with one another ("Bear one another's burdens"), especially those who are charged with the guidance of our spiritual lives on earth (i.e. Pastors are to "feed my sheep", and this includes helping wean them from poisonous "herbs", such as impurity).

SI is gathering his stance from James 5:16; "Confess your faults one to another, and pray one for another, that you may be healed. The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man avails much." Confession doesn't mean they are able to absolve our sins; rather, they are able to counsel and pray with us. For, isn't it Christ who places these brethren in our lives

Miracles that follow the plow :: Prayer for Purity

s? It would seem that He wants us to actually work as a body, and within the natural body the cells each work together to remove waste and restore nutrients. Likewise, we need each other to support and edify, as well as correct and rebuke, us.

I hope this answers your question. The Lord bless all of you.

In the Lamb,
Benjamin