

Articles and Sermons :: looking for sermons from the 50slooking for sermons from the 50s - posted by musicgray, on: 2005/11/3 9:17

Hello everyone. I was wondering if you could maybe help me in my studies.

I'm looking into evangelistic sermons from a linguistic point of view - using only UK speakers, I'm afraid. Someone posted that they'd been listening to a sermon by Leonard Ravenhill from 55. Does anyone know where I'd access this, or other evangelistic sermons from the 50s?

Thanks!

Graham

Re: looking for sermons from the 50s - posted by sermonindex (), on: 2005/11/3 10:38

Yes, there is a sermon by Leonard Ravenhill from the 50's named "Revival" other than this one I am not sure of others that are preached in the UK. I would venture to say that possibly the Willie Mullan recordings are from those times but was he in the UK?

Re: - posted by musicgray, on: 2005/11/3 11:11

Thanks, Greg. I'll check it out.

As you also say, Willie Mullan does have some from the 50s and early 60s, and he's a UK preacher. However, his sermons seem to be pretty expository, and I'm not sure if they have more of a teaching emphasis than an evangelistic one.

Best wishes

Graham

Re: - posted by sermonindex (), on: 2005/11/3 11:16

Oh no brother, this man desired men to come to the Lord every time He spoke. I would say almost every message of his address unbelievers in the midst of the church. Some though could be more evangelistic than others.

Re: - posted by musicgray, on: 2005/11/4 4:18

Thanks again, Greg.