Hey guys I have been having a hard time finding these two missionary biographies. The first one is '1000 Miles of Miracles in China' about the Glovers, and the other is 'No Sacrifice Too Great' If you could direct me to a place that I could buy these books that would be great. Thanks for the help.

I found some results using bookfinder.com for the "No Sacrifice is to Great" just plug in that title into the search and you should be good to go.

Do you recall the author for the 1000 miles in china book?

I bought a copy of the Miracles book by Glover a few years ago from the Overseas Missionary Fellowship (OMF) in the UK. Depending on where you are, you might try looking through <http://www.omf.org> to see what is available.
